DeLean, far too long since we corresponded about your Daniel Valentine Harkey who married Elizabeth Hulda Harkey.

Recently we went to Montgomery Illinois to do research on our Walcher family and to visit with Lynn Boyd Reener who lives in Litchfield. We again talked about the possiblity of where Daniel V. is buried, have you be any chance found a record of his death?
Lynn, says she has the Harkey line fairly well documented except for Daniel V. and I know she is very willing to share with you. She is working full time now and does not have as much time to spend on research, but my visit sparked her enthusiasm to dig a bit more.
Looking forward to hearing from you.
Most sincerely,

Daniel V. Harkey father was John Harkey he married Sarah S. Walcher. Elizabeth H. Walcher father was John M. Walcher he married Leah Schmidt. Sarah S. Walcher and John M. Walcher were brother and sister, their parents were Michael Walcher and Mary M. Cline.

How do you fit in and whats the line down to you?

I'd be glad to share what I have.

I'd love any information you have on the Walchers. I've done some work on the line.

I'll have to look but there is a cemetery with a lot of Walcher in it that had some of my Harkeys in it. I took photos of the headstones but haven't connected any family that I know of yet.

I am sending you a Genealogy Report attachment beginning with Adam and extending 4 or 5 generations down, if you have problems with it, let me know. It is in Microsoft Word 2000, but should download for you. Also, if you will, please let me know that you received it. I look forward to hearing from you.

DeLean, Thanks for replying. Will be anxious to know which cemetery you mentioned that had several Walchers along with the Harkeys. Was it in Montgomery County, Illinois?

My line is down from Michael also:
John Michael Walcher
John Henry Walcher
Charles Daniel Lincoln Walcher
Ernest Raymond Walcher
Edwin Allen Walcher
Barbara Jean Walcher - Me!

I have researching the Walchers for a number of years. Working back to John Michael's father, Michael and back to Adam. But there we hit a "brick wall", mostly due to the records being in old German. We have found some old Lutheran records that give Michael's birthdate and place as 1750 in Frederick City, Maryland, however, so far not much there either.

I will glad to send you the information back to Adam with sources, if you will send me your mailing address.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Barbara, The Cemetery is St. Johns Cemetery in Irving, IL. After I receive your information, I'll make copies of the photo's and send you along with the information I have. What lines do you want? Or would you like them all? I'd love to have all the lines also. It sometimes helps when researching cemeterys, thats one reason I took the photos of the Walcher at St. Johns Cemetery even though I didn't know how and if the belonged to me. One is John Michael Walcher I know.

I've been researching all my lines. We we make trips I always try to go by locations that family lived or was barried at. Bob say's I make a short trip long with all the places I want to go! The Harkey's were German and Lutherans also. I hit the wall with John Harkey, I can't seem to find out which Harkey family he belongs in, there were several in the same area and some of the same names.

Look forward to hearing from you.

Barnes. The Cemetery is St. John Cemetery in Irving, IL. After I receive your information, I'll make copies of the photo's and send you along with the information I have. What sizes do you want or would you like them all? I'd love to have all the sizes also. It sometimes helps when researching cemeteries, that's one reason I took the photos of the Watcher at St. Johns Cemetery even though I didn't know how and if the belonged to me. Like my John Michael Watcher I know.

I've been researching all my lines. We we make trips I always try to go by locations that family lived or was buried at. Bob say's I make a short trip into all the places I want to go. The Burley's were German and Bohemia also. I hit the wall with John Burley, I can't seem to find out Wm's Burley family be Belonge in, there were several in the same area and some of the same names.

Look forward to hearing from you.

Delean, you are correct! Lynn is researching Sarah "Sally Walcher Harkey, daughter of Michael and Mary Magdalene Cline Walcher. She knew that Elizabeth was a Walcher, but did not know who her parents were. She is living in Montgomery County, IL so that is a wonderful contact for the Walchers in that area. I have found in researching my families that I research all the members of the family the same as my own. One of them may have the family bible or may be the last child who inherited all the pictures. I believe Lynn's main goal now is more information on Daniel Valentine Harkey, husband of Elizabeth, especially Daniel's death place. She knew that the family was in Gentry, Mo in 1870, Wyandotte, KS in 1875, and in Sumner County, KS in 1880 without Daniel.

My line is through Charles Daniel Lincoln Walcher (CDL), he was my great grandfather. Elizabeth and John Henry were brother and sister. John Henry was the father of the five boys.

Several years ago, a Sumner county cousin and I began collecting the information on our John Henry line. Carol maintains the present day informaton and I work on the older lines. Carol's mother and my grandfather were brother and sister. It all began because I had done genealogy for some time and no one had kept the information in a book form. We have been working on a book and hope to have it printed this coming year.

Right now I am getting ready for the 70th anniversary of the Walcher Reunion in South Haven, Kansas this coming weekend. Perhaps some of your Walcher relatives have attended one of the reunions. It began in 1931 with many Walcher cousins from many branches of the Walchers who lived in the Oklahoma/Kansas area. They met one Sunday afternoon for basket lunch in Enid, Oklahoma. It has continued almost every year (missed about 4 years due to polio epidemic, war, etc.). Our branch continued meeting in the Sumner County, Kansas area because that is where the 5 sons of John Henry and Elizabeth "Lucretia" Welker Walcher homesteaded. We have about 70+ attending each year. I am the co-chair for the reunion next weekend, so am busy finishing up last minute details.

More details later...am very interested in knowing your line of descent and corresponding with you.

I have corresponded with DeLean. I sent her the Harkey information I had typed to date in March. I did not receive a confirmation of receipt so I thought maybe she had changed her email address.
I also sent it to Donna Hynd with no confirmation of receipt and to Doris Clement who was very aggrevated that I used Word instead of the program she uses. Such is life!

I have considered purchasing Family Tree Maker for the CDs that come with it. I just do not want to type my information again. I have files on several families already.

I'll send you what I have typed on the Harkeys to date; however, it is not complete. The original was 8 pages. There are several more pages now and I haven't typed most of Simeon's information.

I'm going to stop and re-group. I was only working on the Harkeys and then got side-tracked on the Walchers and my desk is a mess! I just can't seem to work on one line at a time.

I'll keep in touch. Thanks for your help.

I have corresponded with Delano. I sent her the Bailey information I had typed in Utica at Mario. I did not receive a confirmation of receipt so I thought maybe she had changed her email address.

It's Me again! I'm sorry you confussed me!
I was looking at Harkey's not Walcher's ! In the 1880 Census Hulda Harkey was my ggg grandmother living with your Walchers!
I have Albert died 3-4-1939 ? Benjamin died 4-16-1945 ? Andrew died 3-30-1940 ? Where do you fit in? Albert, Benjamin, Andrew, Charles, Rush were the son's of John Henry Walcher and Elizabeth Lucretia Welker not Elizabeth Walcher who married Daniel V. Harkey.

Delean,
I am the Walcher historian for the John Henry Walcher branch. John Henry and Elizabeth Hulda were brother and sister. I am also working the rest of the Walcher genealogy, especially the search for Adam.

A Walcher cousin, Lynn Boyd Reener is related through the Harkey line would like very much to correspond with you. I am forwarding this note to both of you.

Lynn lives in Montgomery County, Illinois and has been researching the Harkey family for a number of years.

Please keep me in your loop of research and let me know how you both are progressing. Would like to know your snail mail address and your information from Elizabeth to you. Looking forward to hearing from both of you!!!

John and Sarah Harkey moved to Montgomery Co IL, purchasing 161.4 acres of land on 30 Dec 1830. this land was in Twp 8 N, Range 4 W, the NW ¼ of section 1 which is just north of the city of Hillsboro. They traveled with a group consisting of Martin and Christina Harkey and their children and families. Also in this group were the Blackwelder and Barringer families. It is suggested in "Blackwelder and Allied Families" that Martin and John were brothers; however, no proof was given.

The subject of this sketch was born in Iredell Co, NC, Apr 3d 1827, and is the youngest son of John and Sarah Harkey, and brother of Rev Simeon W Harkey D D. The name was originally "Herche" instead of Harkey. On the father's side the ancestry came from Switzerland and on the mother's side from Wittenberg, Germany. The mother's name was Walcher. His classical studies were commenced in the Hillsboro Academy under the Principalship of Prof. Edward Wyman. In the fall of 1844, he entered the freshman class of Pennsylvania College, Gettysburg, PA, in which institute he continued until 1847, when on account of a severe illness he retired from college, and afterwards took a select school in Frederick City, MD. His theological studies were pursued under the direction of his brother S W Harkey, D D, and in Oct 1848, he was licensed to preach the gospel by the Synod of MD, in Cumberland MD. He then established the Piedmont Academy in Mechanicstown MD and served it until Apr 1849, when he accepted a call to Newville PA, which was his first regular ministerial charge. He was very successful in this field, adding a great many to the church, and he continued as pastor until May 1852. He was ordained by the West PA Synod in 1850, at New Berlin PA. In 1852 he removed to the State of IL to do home missionary and pioneer work for the Lutheran Church. He labored successively at Peoria, Pekin, Mendon, Decatur, Shelbyville, Nokomis, Vandalia, and other points; establishing self-sustaining charges without missionary aid in some places, and organizing congregations in others. In 1861 he was elected Chaplain of the 54th Regiment IL Volunteers, and served in this capacity in the civil war, almost a year. In 1868 he was elected English Professor in Augustana College and Theological Seminary, located at Paxton IL where he continued two years. He made the first effort to secure a location for this institution in Rock Island and obtained a conditional donation of $40,000 for the institution at Genesee IL, which was never accepted or utilized. This ended his ministry for the time in IL; during which he had been three times elected President of the Synod, being the first President of the Synod of IL and adjacent states. From the beginning of his ministry, and all through the time of his labors in IL, he took high and firm ground in favor of the confessions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, publishing a Synodical sermon upon the subject, entitled "The Faith Once Delivered to the Saints" as early as 1860. He carried his Synod with him into the organization of the General Council at Ft Wayne, in 1867. Dayton OH; Indianapolis IN; Mt Pleasant PA; Toledo OH; and North Lima OH.

His published works are: "The Signs of the Times" 1852; "The Faith Once Delivered to the Saints" 1860; "Thorough Education" 1868; "The Only Son" 1869; "Songs of Beulah" 1876; "The Lord's Day" 1878; "Close Communion" 1878; "Agnosticism" 1885; "National Blessings and Dangers" 1889.

He was married the first time May 16, 1848 to Miss Mary Jane Jenkins of Gettysburg PA, by whom he has five children living and three dead. He was married a second time Dec 31, 1872 to Miss Susie Truman of Cincinnati OH, by whom he has one daughter.

As a man, the testimony of his friends is, that Dr Harkey is possessed of the warmest sympathies, of a tender, loving heart, of a high sense of honor and right, of candor, conscientiousness, courage, firmness, keen perception, clear judgment, and general intellectual strength and ability. As a precher he is characterized by perspicuity, strong imagination, rapid flow of thought and language, powerful and well-cultivated voice, eloquence and force of delivery, energy, earnestness, and feeling. He has rare ability as a musician and composer of music. Almost the whole of the book called "Songs of Beulah" being his own compositions. He has also a vain of poetry, and has furnished a few specimens of the public of his ability in this direction, among which are some Sunday-school hymns, and a poem called "The Flood of the Conemaugh".

He received the honorary degree of Master of Arts from IL State University in 1860; and the degree of Doctor of Divinity in 1882 from the NC College, located in his native state, near the place of his birth.

The following is a testimony of the Missionary President of the Pittsburg Synod: "Dr Harkey's preaching abilities are well known, he has few peers! As a sound Lutheran, and an expounder of the faith of the church, he has no superior! His long and valuable services have been appreciated. His self-denials and self-sacrificing labors demand respect, and deserve recognition. His talents, being of the highest order, would enable him to fill any pulpit with credit and acceptance."
(Note: Mr Florreich made a note that Sidney died Sep 23, 1901 in Kutztown PA. This book contains over 350 biographies of leading men of the American Lutheran Church from its establishment to the year 1890 by Rev J C Jensson, Milwaukee WI.)

Conrad Bergendoff, President Emeritus, Augustana College, Rock Island IL provided a copy of the above article from American Lutheran Biographies and another article from The Pennsylvania College Book 1832-1882, Philadelphia 1882 which contained the same information.

Margaret Harkey, d/o John, born 1813, came to Montgomery Co with her father in 1832. "It is said she walked all the way from North Carolina driving cattle and sheep behind the ox wagon". She died 8/14/1887 age 74 years.

Early Settlers of Montgomery Co IL, by Walter R Sanders
Aaron Barringer came to IL abt 1829 and lived with Jacob Cress. He worked at the old horse mill two miles northwest of Hillsboro. (I think he returned to NC. - confusing - Reads like he went to Union Co IL where he spent the winter with Daniel and Rachel (Blackwelder) Carriker and returned with Peter Peter and Alfred Blackwelder.) Aaron bought the first reaping machine in the county. The neighbors laughed and said it wouldn't work; but, he hitched four horses to it and it worked. He served as a JP in Hillsboro 3/13/1841 - 7/2/1841. His picture appeared in the Montgomery News issue of 5/5/1911, per Sanders.

Obituary - Sarah Francis Harkey, wife of James Harkey, was born Dec 16, 1846. She died at Raymond, Jan 8, 1909. The immediate cause of her death was heart trouble, which resulted in a paralytic stroke. She was ill but four hours and the end was peaceful. She confessed faith in Christ at the age of 20 years and became a member of the Baptist church. Within the last few years she united with the Methodist church at Irving.
She was a kind and loving mother, a good and faithful wife and always willing to help the sick and the afflicted.

She leaves to mourn her loss, besides her husband, five children as follows: Mrs. William Fite, of Barnett; Charles Harkey, Raymond; Mrs Fred Fite, Staunton; Frank Harkey, Atwater, and Mrs Robert Zimmerly, Raymond. She is also survived by four sisters, namely: Mary Cook, of Kansas; Kate Knight, of Missouri; Hattie Nussman and Prudie Coffee, of Irving. The deceased was held in the highest esteem by all who knew her. The funeral services were held at the Methodist church at Irving on Sunday, January 10th, after which the remains were laid to rest in Irving cemetery.

(This must have been from a newspaper and I forgot to note the date and name of paper or I have a clipping that is misfiled. Charles was b 1873; therefore, it would have been 1905.)

Harkey by Lynn Boyd Reener on April 22, 2001 at 00:00
Email Address: foboyd@litchfield.com message ID: 6933

I would like to contact others who are researching the family of John and Sarah (WALCHER)HARKEY of NC and Montgomery Co IL. Their children were:
Rev. Simeon Walcher HARKEY 1811-1889
Margaret Ann w/o Aaron BARRINGER 1813-1887
Rev. James Michael HARKEY 1819-1850
Nancy Maria w/o Henry WALTER 1821-????
Daniel Valentine HARKEY 1824-1870/1875
Rev. Sidney Levi HARKEY 1827-1901
The family lived in the area near Troutman NC. All but Simeon came to Montogmery Co IL in 1830. Simeon went to study for the ministry in Gettysburg PA. He did not visit his parents until 1838. My line is Daniel who moved to Missouri and then to Kansas with his second wife, Elizabeth WALCHER, and their children. I descend from his son, James Calvin, by Margaret Ann WELLER, his first wife, who died shortly after giving birth to twin girls. The twins died a few months later.

Ok, do not need the 1850 census unless it has the Mortality with it. Would love to have the 1855 and anything about Irving that is available. I will be happy to reimburse your for copying costs. Know I can depend on you copying so you can read the pages, has had others copy and mail to me and sometimes cut off of the page what I needed !! However, if the ditto does not copy well, just forget it. Please wait till I do a surname list so we can hopefully catch some of the people I do not have in my data that I need deaths and places on. Will do that when I return from OKC or maybe while I am down there, if I don't too caught up with going to the State Historical Society. De used to help me with the research, so will see if she is willing to go and sit???
I also want to get by to see another lady in Piedmont near OKC who is also from the Montgomery Co. Walcher line, was surprised that she is still with us. So if I am going to get an update on that family before she is gone.

I entered some info on a family last week, John Lorenzo Walcher and wife Alsadie McLain that were said to be buried in Hopewell, probably in unmarked graves. Is saddens me so when the old original records were lost either to fire or to someone who thought they should have them and no one else.

When I get back, I will mail you a copy of the book--am trying this afternoon to get all laundry caught up and ironing and decide what I need to take with me in the morning. More later as time allows.
MUCH LOVE,
barb

Hopewell Cemetery - no Walchers in index

There are no more volumes of cemeteries. Originally, I wanted to reorganize Sanders work and add to it. Work and life intervened and I stopped with one. I'm going to try to dig his listing out of my stuff in the basement for the Irving cemetery. If I have it, I'll get it copied or retyped for you.

I have the 1850 and 1855 census by Sanders. They were done on a ditto machine-that purple stuff they used to have in schools-so I don't think they would copy well.

I would love to have you book for my collection. It will be an inspiration to me to keep chugging along.

I've been working away - a little at a time. Got the notes for John and children moved from WORD to the PAF file and have started on Daniel's children forward. Of course, I got side tracked with putting bits and pieces of other lines in - the pedigree chart fascinates me - it just grows as you add names!

Take care. Our best to Jack. Will get back with you later.

Subject: Re: PAF Question

Lynn, have questions:

I again want to thank you for the books you gave me on Montgomery County, they are so much help to me. I went to the Montgomery County Gen Soc website and found they have books listed, so here are my questions:

1. Do the Crabtree and Holy Cross Cemetery readings have any of the Walcher's in them? Figure that you have copies and might look to see if they would be worth the purchase.

2. There must be a difference in the Irving Township Cemetery (which I think is the one that Page took us to when we were there) and the Irving Township Cemetery, is the Township Cemetery indexed as yet?

3. Know you gave me Montgomery County Illinois Cemeteries, Vol 1, are there more volumes?

4. You also gave me Montgomery County Illinois 1860 Census and Mortality Schedule, are there any other books available that perhaps are not on the website?

I would like to give you my John Henry Walcher book, if you would like one...have a couple left. Before publication, I told the family that I would print only the number ordered, but the printer said he would have an over run and could purchase the remainder, otherwise he would dispose of the them, so I got them. Would love for you to have a copy, if you would want one. Know it is not your line, but thought you might enjoy the stories and pages of pictures about the reunion and families.

Tomorrow (Tuesday) I am off to OKC to stay with Jack's sister who has Alzheimers while he husband is in Florida to his family wedding. Will be there until after Labor Day, but am taking my laptop with me and will see what kind of hookup I can get there. Hope the input into PAF is going well and that you are taking time to do other things--I know I am obsessed with getting as much done with the records. Maybe boring to others but not to me!

Look forward to hearing from you.
MUCH LOVE,
barb

Dear Lynn,

Finally setting down to get back to my promised correspondence—have been going to the chiropractor for my back and neck and by the time I get that in the morning, I am exhausted. But am feeling better, will be going three times a week for the next few weeks to see if he can get me straighten out! So much for that!

I am sending you a copy of the book, hope you enjoy it. Now to where I am with the Harkey lines. Not very far…am hoping you will share what you would like for me to have. I am enclosing what I have begun to work on, but it is in between getting info from several sources, so I work a little while then have to stop with that family and update the info that comes from some else. I am sure you know what I mean.

I am starting a list of items for you, but will it will be a while before I am ready to send it. Don't want you to make a million trips here and there…so will try to assemble them in groups, think I am ok on marriages, but deaths and obituaries are very lacking. Right now have too many things going and not enough time to think about what I need.

Will get back with you, don't give up on me. Hope all is going well with Rhonda—Nancy did a lot of substitute teaching for the school system the year. She has been teaching now for almost 20 years (special ed), she said at least is paid some of her bills!

More later as time permits.
MUCH LOVE,

Lynn, thanks for the envelope of goodies, appreciate you taking the time to do that. Have been extremely busy with "things"--having to do some DAR work now that the chapter activities have begun this fall. Will be getting back to the Walcher stuff eventually! I have worked on the census when I wake up at the ungodly hours of 3 and 4 and can't go back to sleep. Hay fever season and the medications just do not put me to sleep as they do some people! Yesterday, I began cleaning up my side of the computer room, just has too much stacked! And knew I had to cull out books! Got a copy of the John Henry book and will be mailing it to you soon, perhaps tomorrow.

I know I have some questions about the Harkeys and some questions about the Walchers. A question now--I would love to have some of the sheets of info that Mr. Saunders wrote on some of the members of our family to include in my database and then in the book--if I would give you a list of the names, would it possible for you to check out the pages, copy and mail to me---Now I know that it would take some time---as you know I am not in a hurry to have anything....Just whenever it happens! Probably would be sending the info in parts. I found some info when we were there, but we really didn't continue to go through all the books--I know you know the room and what it has better than almost anyone. I will be happy to pay for copies and postage and anything else you find needs $ to produce the info. You know how we genealogists are--we want everything we can get our hands on! By the way I have not given up on getting you a CD of the Walcher info. Have been having back trouble and some days am not sitting long in the chair at the computer--going to the chiropractor tomorrow. Jack went today and got released until he does something again and needs to go back. I have never been before, so it may be the first and last time! Gonna get back to the heating pad now. Will let you know when I mail the book, will mail it Priority as the cardboard protects the book better.
Love to you cousin,
barb

Barb,

Things have been busy here too. Must be something in the air. Hayfever is bad here too - take meds every day.

I'll be happy to do what I can for you. A woman contacted me Sunday about Ron's family. She sent me some info and several contacts. She isn't related - just nice. Hope to get more info on them.

Rhonda quit her job so that was an upheavel. Of course, Dad's worried. She says she'll be fine. Couldn't do it any more. She'd been doing two people's jobs for almost 5 years and they were on her all the time to do more. Not sure if they were trying to get rid of her or not. She says she feels better than she's felt in a couple of years. I think she will update her teaching credentials.

More later. I'm on break at work. Things have really picked up.

Lynn

Lynn, thanks for the note and the update. We are in the computer room this evening--not much on TV--read your note to him and he says tell Ron to take it easy--he doesn't want a relapse. Know he must have felt terrible.

Now to genealogy--I have had too much to do since I returned home from Jack's sisters. I have begun getting things straightened out. Putting census in the right place, entering the new stuff into the computer program, but am behind. I will probably get to it this coming weekend. Have worked on DAR stuff all day and have a resume to do with son-in-law in the morning and a DAR call in the afternoon at 1, then help set the room at 3 for the Membership Tea on Wednsday afternoon. Will try to get my list together on Thursday and mail with the book on Friday, but----seems sometimes "things" just get in the way, like meals, phone calls, etc. I am sure you know what I mean. And, hey, I have things strung out all over this side of my room, had to do some upkeep yesterday afternoon and evening and the ironing is waiting! Will get back with you soon.

Lynn, got your notes. The note with the attachment (Walcher, misc mar.xlr) did not work. It could be because it had a comma or most probably because it had the extension .xlr. I do not have software to read it. So let's talk before you sent it again--yes, I have printed the Walcher Grooms and Brides names from the Illinois Statewide Marriage Records 1763-1900 website. I put in the Walcher name and got all the Grooms names printed and have in my file, did the same for Brides and several other surnames. I can now easily refer back to it in paper form; however, use it often from the web.

Will get back with you in the next few days--right now--need a bit of time to regroup! More soon...

I have corresponded with DeLean. I sent her the Harkey information I had typed to date in March. I did not receive a confirmation of receipt so I thought maybe she had changed her email address.
I also sent it to Donna Hynd with no confirmation of receipt and to Doris Clement who was very aggrevated that I used Word instead of the program she uses. Such is life!

I have considered purchasing Family Tree Maker for the CDs that come with it. I just do not want to type my information again. I have files on several families already.

I'll send you what I have typed on the Harkeys to date; however, it is not complete. The original was 8 pages. There are several more pages now and I haven't typed most of Simeon's information.

I'm going to stop and re-group. I was only working on the Harkeys and then got side-tracked on the Walchers and my desk is a mess! I just can't seem to work on one line at a time.

I'll keep in touch. Thanks for your help.

Lynn,
Thanks for the reply. First to ask where did Rose Taulbee live? Would love to have copies of her work.

Second, I found a reference to your writing on the Internet site for libraries. OCLC, the Online Computer Library Center - there was a trial day and I entered Walcher and got the information I sent you. It did not list which library that had the information only a library number, your name and the information I sent you. So now we know the library where you gave the information, cataloged it. Hope you will share a copy with me.

Third, Elizabeth Hulda Walcher is the daughter of John Michael Walcher and a sister to John Henry Walcher (my great-great grandfather). Her grandfather was Michael Walcher, father of Sarah "Sally" Walcher Harkey. I am sending you an attachment from my Family Tree Maker computer genealogy program, it is a Genealogy Report which will give you the some of the information you need. You would love the program, just tell it which report you want and it puts the information together for you!

As you know from my letter yesterday, our Walcher line settled in the Sumner County, Kansas area, so I am sure that is why you found her there in 1880. The Walchers took care of each other. Although I have not heard anyone tell of Elizabeth and her children in any of the Walcher stories. So, looks like research in the Kansas archives will be your next step. I would also suggest searches in the Kansas 1900 census for the sons' names, perhaps they stayed in Kansas in adulthood. Because I have Kansas roots, I keep a folder in my bookmarks for Kansas, so I ran Harkey on several of the databases. I have attached a copy of what I found. You might check them out.

Probably one of the most interesting was a database of surnames in Kansas. On the Kansas Genealogy Surname page (http://raven.cc.ukans.edu/heritage/research/inter-gen/h.html) I found Harkey listed for Sedgwick, Wyandotte & Sumner counties the name listed was DeLean@Planet KC.com. Feel sure this is someone researching your Harkey line. Perhaps you have already corresponded with her. I sent her a note, but if you do not know her, followup! I bet you will be pleasantly surprised!

I saw your query on one message board, but hope this helps. Let me know how things are going.

Noticed that one of the Harkey's married a Lingenfelter, so did a search on that surname---

Listed in South Haven in Cutler's "History of Kansas"
Lingenfelter, William J.
WILLIAM J. LINGENFELTER, farmer, Section 3, P. O. Wellington, was born in Jefferson County, Penn., in 1845, where he was reared on a farm, obtaining a little schooling, until he was twenty-two years of age. He then went into a wholesale and retail store, where he remained three and a half years. In 1865, he made a crop of cotton of 30,000 pounds, and 250 acres of corn, and returned in 1866; he then went to Gentry County, Mo., in 1867, where he remained five years, teaching, farming and merchandising. In 1872 he came to Kansas, town of South Haven, where he bought 160 acres in Section 3; subsequently he bought 800 acres, and afterwards sold off all but 240 acres, which he retains as a homestead in Section 3; has broken in all about 540 acres; of his 240 acres, all but sixty are under cultivation, and the balance in grass. His farm is all fences with hedge and the barbed wire. He has 6,000 forest trees, eighty apple, 800 peach trees, selected from the best, 100 assorted grape-vines, and a variety of small fruits. In Missouri, he was a Justice two years. Is a member of the legislature, representing the Ninety-second district, having been elected last fall, 1882. Was married to Miss Mary C. Greyson of Kansas, by whom he has three children - Rossie Jane, Mary Clorinda, Susan Catherine. Mr. Lingenfelter is a member of the Free Masons, and an ancient Odd-Fellow. He commenced life without money, and by his own energy and good management, has accumulated a competence sufficient for all needs. As a member of the legislature, he was appointed on the railroad committee, which proposed what was known as the House bill, which required the railroads of the State of Kansas, to establish a minimum rate on car lots. Through the efforts of the committee, and especially so of the Hon. Mr. Lingenfelter, the bill was passed by the house, but on reaching the Senate, it was defeated. This fact shows, that though the committee manifested great zeal and sterling honesty in their efforts to benefit and faithfully serve their constituents, yet they were unable to successfully cope with their adversary.

Are you related to eith Albert, Brent or Andrew Harkey? Their mother was Elizabeth Walcher who married Daniel V. Harkey in Montgomery, Illinois. They are listed in the 1880 census in Sumner County. Will appreciate hearing from you.

Delean, you are correct! Lynn is researching Sarah "Sally Walcher Harkey, daughter of Michael and Mary Magdalene Cline Walcher. She knew that Elizabeth was a Walcher, but did not know who her parents were. She is living in Montgomery County, IL so that is a wonderful contact for the Walchers in that area. I have found in researching my families that I research all the members of the family the same as my own. One of them may have the family bible or may be the last child who inherited all the pictures. I believe Lynn's main goal now is more information on Daniel Valentine Harkey, husband of Elizabeth, especially Daniel's death place. She knew that the family was in Gentry, Mo in 1870, Wyandotte, KS in 1875, and in Sumner County, KS in 1880 without Daniel.

My line is through Charles Daniel Lincoln Walcher (CDL), he was my great grandfather. Elizabeth and John Henry were brother and sister. John Henry was the father of the five boys.

Several years ago, a Sumner county cousin and I began collecting the information on our John Henry line. Carol maintains the present day informaton and I work on the older lines. Carol's mother and my grandfather were brother and sister. It all began because I had done genealogy for some time and no one had kept the information in a book form. We have been working on a book and hope to have it printed this coming year.

Right now I am getting ready for the 70th anniversary of the Walcher Reunion in South Haven, Kansas this coming weekend. Perhaps some of your Walcher relatives have attended one of the reunions. It began in 1931 with many Walcher cousins from many branches of the Walchers who lived in the Oklahoma/Kansas area. They met one Sunday afternoon for basket lunch in Enid, Oklahoma. It has continued almost every year (missed about 4 years due to polio epidemic, war, etc.). Our branch continued meeting in the Sumner County, Kansas area because that is where the 5 sons of John Henry and Elizabeth "Lucretia" Welker Walcher homesteaded. We have about 70+ attending each year. I am the co-chair for the reunion next weekend, so am busy finishing up last minute details.

More details later...am very interested in knowing your line of descent and corresponding with you.

The David Harkey you refered to who was born on 12/4/1784 in North Carolina: did he have a brother John born 4/4/1789 in NC, died 6/21/1864. He married Sarah Walcher.

John Harkey is my ascendant on my mother's side of the family.

Due to some verbal abuse by one of the VP's at Prairie Farms, I quit at the end of Sept last year. It is something he does regularly and no one will do anything about it. Many people have left the company because of him - the VP of Personnel, the payroll supervisor, a human relations man at one of their subsidiaries, the office manager, and others. I personally think he has something on Leonard Southwell who was the CEO until last winter. PF was in lots of trouble with the federal government over price fixing. Several people were found guilty; but, PF fought it for several years. Then all of a sudden they gave up the fight when Leonard was on trial and took a plea bargain.

I went back to work last month at a local printer. It is really interesting. Nothing like what I've done for the last 20 years - accounting positions in large companies. I do a little bit of everything office wise - more like what I did when I was younger.

The reunion sounds great. I've only been to one reunion in my life - Sharp family - my mother's side.

Thank you for the article from the Lutheran Observer. One of my Harkey contacts had sent me a couple of items on the Harkey ministers from that source.

where did she live?

I do not think Rose Taulbee is still living. If she is, she is very elderly. I haven't heard from her in years.

I would love to purchase a copy of your book whenever it is completed. Just let me know how much and where to send the check. I have some misc info on people I don't know how they fit that I can send you. Maybe you can fit them in. I'll try to get that together and email it to you in the next few weeks.

I do not use a genealogy program. Everything is typed in Word.

First Search gave her address -

I have not written any booklet on the Harkeys; however, I hope to finish up what I have some time this year. I plan to have two sections. No 1 will be John and Sarah and their children. It will not continue forward to the present. No 2 will continue with my line. I've sent queries to some NC and IL societies hoping to get some more information before I finish up.

I do not know how the rumor got started that I had done a book on the Harkeys. Several years ago, I gave typed copies of some information to a couple of libraries and it was printed in a quarterly. That is as far as it went.

The reason I contacted Carol was that I'm trying to find out where Daniel Harkey died. In 1870, he and his second wife, Elizabeth, were in Gentry Co MO. In 1875, they were in Wyandotte Co KS. In 1880, Elizabeth and 4 of their children were in Sumner Co KS with Alber, Brent, and Andrew Walcher. Elizabeth Harkey was a Walcher; but, I do not know who her parents were. Can you shed any light on these people?

I look forward to working with you again.

Lynn,
Received your letter in the mail today-I was going over some Walcher information last week and had your file out to send you an email. I had noticed a message or two on the web and had a feeling you were back researching. My last letter to you was in May 1998 and you replied by e-mail to me and said you were working at Prairie Farms Dairy.

Your contact, Mrs. Lawrence (Carol Rusk Hunt) Norris is my 2nd cousin, my grandfather and her mother were brother and sister, we are from two different generations, although a year apart in our ages. We began working on our branch (John Henry Walcher) of the family several years ago. I have been the family historian for our branch, however, Carol has maintained the present day information on our John Henry Walcher. She lives in the area where the family homesteaded and has kept wonderful contact with many of the families. We have been working on a book for the past three years, attempting to get pictures and ready for the printer-I am almost there, just need a few more "good" prints to scan. The information you received from Carol on families earlier that John Henry is research I have done and shared with her.

Right now we are working on the 70th anniversary of the Walcher Reunion (May 5-6). In the summer of 1931, a group of Walcher cousins who had lived in the Oklahoma/Kansas area began meeting once a year and they have held a reunion almost every year, think they have missed only about 4 years due to polio, war, etc. Next weekend in South Haven, Kansas we will again have reunion and celebrate. I am attaching the flyer I sent out earlier this month for your enjoyment. Our special guest, we are hoping, if Congress adjourns early for the weekend, will be Joel Hefley, his great grandfather (Jefferson "Lem" Hefley married Margaret "Clementine" Walcher (sister of Daniel and John Henry). Lem and Clementine's son, Jesse had written many stories about the Hefleys and Walchers in the Kansas/Oklahoma area and we are hoping he will share them with us. So lots to do between now and next Saturday!

Also several years ago, James (Jim) Hugh Walcher of Irvine, CA (formerly Palisade) wrote asking about the Walchers. His grandmother and grandfather Walcher had divorced and he knew nothing about his Walcher family. We correspond regularly and I am happy to say he is making wonderful progress, although his Balthazar Walcher came directly from Austria to American much later than our Adam. Jim has a database of Walcher information on the Family Tree Maker website and I have listed my database on the GenForum and Family History.com message boards. So we are beginning to have queries and getting information from several lines, but most of them link back to the Adam/North Carolina line.

I have also been working on updating my files as to who is presently working on specific Walcher lines. I am hoping to find a place on the Internet where we can coordinate our efforts toward finding where Adam came into the US.

We have found on the Ancestry website, an article on Michael Walcher which appeared in the Lutheran Observer #15I have attached that item also. Perhaps you already have this info.

I have not corresponded with Rose Taulbee, it appears that she descends from Daniel and Lucretia Paldridge?

After reunion I will get back to sorting out my many Walcher contacts and share with you. There are about 5 serious researches who are interested in working on the Adam project. I have also been helping move my 84 year-old Mother from central to western Oklahoma closer to my brother and sister. I have spent many days with two other family members packing, packing, and loading "possessions"! The moving came this week and until after the reunion, I am recuperating! Also in July will complete my year as the program chairman for a genealogy computer group in Tulsa, my husband, Jack and I also teach genealogy classes at the local Votech in the spring and fall. So you can see we are busy in our retirement (?), we also have children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren living in town, soooooo-sometimes research gets put on the back burner-I tell my students, it called "Life"!

I am so happy to hear from you and delighted that you are researching again. I will continue filling you in the Walcher research, please do the same. Please give me a little time to update my research log.

By the way, what genealogy computer program do you use?

Also found that you had written two book type publications on John and Sarah Harkey families:

1. John & Sarah (Walcher) Harkey and children: Iredell Co., NC and Montgomery Co, IL.
   Contains 35 leaves: and map. Covers period 1789-1864.
2. The family of John & Sarah (Walcher) Harkey from Iredell County, North Carolina.
   Contains 8 leaves and includes bibliographical references.

Any chance that I might have copies of each?

Looking forward to hearing from you, cousin!

Dear Barbara,

Thank you for the information on the Walcher line. I really haven't worked on any genealogy to speak of for several years.

After CPC closed in 1993, I took 4 months off to clean and have some remodeling done. Then a temp agency called me to see if I'd take a job at Prairie Farms Dairy. The girl who was going to take the job backed out. I went to work there in June and am still there - went full time in Sept of 1993. I started in the accounting dept. and now I'm the administrative assistant to the Corp Fleet Manager.

You may be familiar with Hiland Dairy which is a joint venture of Prairie Farms.
We're the managing partner.

Good luck with your research.

Dear Barbara,

It's been 9 years, I hope your still at the same address. I am at the same place.

I've been working on my Harkey's again. Of course, that brought me back to Michael Walcher. I contacted a Mrs. Lawrence Norris during my search for information on Daniel Harkey and she shares your line. I've taken your old family group sheets and added information. I am enclosing a set for you. Black=you, Blue=me, Green=Rose Taulbee, and Red=Mrs. Norris

Do you have an email address? I can send you my Walcher file. It is just what I have written on Michael's form; but, it includes the documentation. If you don't have email, I can mail it to you if you want it.

Hope to hear from you soon,

Lynn

Lynn Boyd Reener
609 W. Buchanan Street
Litchfield, IL 62056-1807

Dear Lynn,

I am again working on the Walcher Family History. What a help you were to me when we corresponded last. Do not know whether you have continued to "Shake the Tree" or not, so will bring you up-to date with what been happening with my research.

Have enlarged the family descendents but have not yet jumped the "water". We are still having a Walcher Reunion every year in the Wellington, KS area. A cousin who lives in the area has kept our descending line up-to-date and I am attempting to continue back, hoping to find Adam coming to America from Germany. At least that is what all the family stories say, with the exception of one who says we are "Dutch".

As most people who work on genealogy as a hobby, I have worked on finding information, then family matters take over my life... as you probably know. Last note I had from you, your plant was to close down (What company?) did you find another job? I know where you are coming from... my husband was down-sized with Phillips Petroleum Company in 1991 and I have continued to work to maintain benefits. Then there are new grandchildren to keep our lives very busy.

Several months ago, Jim Walcher, Palisades, CA, wrote me that he was looking for Walcher information in attempt to find his grandfather. Grandmother and father had divorced when Jim's father was small. So I have hopped back into working with the tree again. Jim sent out 50 letters over the US hoping some Walcher would help him with information. What he has received is wonderful... he believes he has 4 separate lines of Walchers. The most information comes from the Adam line... but no one to date has found Adam except in the North Carolina area.

I am corresponding with Jim over the Internet and recently he flew back for our Walcher Reunion. Since our first letter he has found that his grandfather came directly from Austria and is working on tying the Walcher lines together. Jim received some information stating that Adam was born in Germany and died in Irving, Illinois. (I thought he died in Cabarrus County.) I believe this info may have come from the family bible of Page Norman Walcher (age 76) who lives in the Irving, Illinois area. Do you know him? Jim says Page has been very helpful with information. Am enclosing the pedigree chart for Page.

Jim has also received information from Ernest Walcher in Colorado (age 76) who is related through John Michael Walcher's son, Joseph Gideon. Ernest gave Jim a German Walcher contact in Mainz, Germany and who gave Ernest information on the Walcher line in Germany.

I wanted to share with you what new information I have received and hope you will share if you have new findings. I hope all is well with you and your family and look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Dear Lynn:

Recently, I found your name and information in the North Carolina Ancestors quarterly in our state libray. The information stated that you are working on a WALCHER family history line. I, too, am working on a Walcher line.

The ancestor you list John Harkey who married Sarah "Sally" Walcher, daughter of Michael Walcher. My great, great grandfather was John Henry Walcher, ~~brother~~ nephew of Sally. I am enclosing an ancestor chart which will show the relationship, and the family group sheets for John Henry, his father, John Michael and his grandfather, Michael.

I have been working to prove some information that a cousin gave me several years ago on John Michael and Michael. If you have researched these lines, perhaps you will share with me the location of the proofs.

I have written to the North Carolina State Archives for Michael's will, but as yet have not received a reply. I am hoping this will give me more of information to continue my research.

John Henry had 5 sons while living in Missouri and Kansas. (My grandfather, C.D.L. Walcher, was one of the sons.) From 1937 thru 1992, there has been a Walcher reunion of the remaining families almost every year in the Wellington/Wichita Kansas area. Several years ago, I began keeping the family group sheets on each family of the 5 sons. It is rewarding to know that the families are also interested in keeping the information.

I will be very happy to correspond with you regarding these Walcher families. I look forward to hearing from you regarding your relationship to Sally Walcher Harkey.

Sincerely,

Barbara Walcher Fulton

Dear Barbara,

Thank you for the information on WALCHER. I haven't worked actively on genealogy since I went back to work nine years ago. Our plant will shut down Jan. 2, 1993, unless a miracle happens. I'll work as long as there is billing to be done - will probably shut the place down. It's really sad; but, hope to get back into genealogy when this is all over.

The only additional information I have on Michael's family is a couple of marriage dates----
Barbara Walcher m. Daniel Winecoff 10 SE 1804
Sarah Walcher m. John Harkey 11 JA 1811
both in Cabarrus Co. NC listed Mary Ann Blackwelder here some place?

I've enclosed a couple of pages of notes on WALCHER and a family group sheet for Sarah and John Harkey.

Sorry I don't have more to add. I will keep your name on file.

I don't think there is anything going on that Sun. Monday I usually work; but, could probably take at least part of the day off.

The Comfort Inn 217-324-9260 and Baymont 217-324-4556 are both newer. The Baymont has an indoor pool if that is of interest to you. There is a Holiday Inn at the Carlinville exit which is about 11 miles north of us 217-324-2100. Hillsboro has one motel south of town but it didn't look very nice the last time I was by there. They also have the Red Rooster Inn 217-532-6332 which is uptown near the old courthouse. I'm not sure about the accommodations.

Have a safe trip.

Lynn, we are going to a seminar in Columbia, MO on Friday, August 13 and Sat, 14th. We are planning to go to see Page and Kathryn Walcher in Irving after the seminar. Was wondering about stopping by and visiting with you perhaps on Sunday or Monday, 15th or 16. Will have more definite plans when I hear from a cousin in St. Louis. Hope to see her on Saturday evening for supper stay there overnight and drive to Litchfield on Sunday. Stay there or in Hillsboro on Monday. Would this work into your schedule? I know you are working, but love to meet and visit with you. Would like to know what motel you would recommend in your area. Look forward to hearing from you.

I am from the line of Alice Daisy Harkey. By the way, my Aunt Lavonne and my uncle Bob are still alive (Robert A. Zimmerly/Alice Daisy Harkey).

Noticed that one of the Harkey's married a Lingenfelter, so did a search on that surname---

Listed in South Haven in Cutler's "History of Kansas"
Lingenfelter, William J.
WILLIAM J. LINGENFELTER, farmer, Section 3, P. O. Wellington, was born in Jefferson County, Penn., in 1845, where he was reared on a farm, obtaining a little schooling, until he was twenty-two years of age. He then went into a wholesale and retail store, where he remained three and a half years. In 1865, he made a crop of cotton of 30,000 pounds, and 250 acres of corn, and returned in 1866; he then went to Gentry County, Mo., in 1867, where he remained five years, teaching, farming and merchandising. In 1872 he came to Kansas, town of South Haven, where he bought 160 acres in Section 3; subsequently he bought 800 acres, and afterwards sold off all but 240 acres, which he retains as a homestead in Section 3; has broken in all about 540 acres; of his 240 acres, all but sixty are under cultivation, and the balance in grass. His farm is all fences with hedge and the barbed wire. He has 6,000 forest trees, eighty apple, 800 peach trees, selected from the best, 100 assorted grape-vines, and a variety of small fruits. In Missouri, he was a Justice two years. Is a member of the legislature, representing the Ninety-second district, having been elected last fall, 1882. Was married to Miss Mary C. Greyson of Kansas, by whom he has three children - Rossie Jane, Mary Clorinda, Susan Catherine. Mr. Lingenfelter is a member of the Free Masons, and an ancient Odd-Fellow. He commenced life without money, and by his own energy and good management, has accumulated a competence sufficient for all needs. As a member of the legislature, he was appointed on the railroad committee, which proposed what was known as the House bill, which required the railroads of the State of Kansas, to establish a minimum rate on car lots. Through the efforts of the committee, and especially so of the Hon. Mr. Lingenfelter, the bill was passed by the house, but on reaching the Senate, it was defeated. This fact shows, that though the committee manifested great zeal and sterling honesty in their efforts to benefit and faithfully serve their constituents, yet they were unable to successfully cope with their adversary.

HARKEY IN MIAMI COUNTY – CUTLER'S HISTORY OF KANSAS

R. W. LESLIE, farmer, Section 30, Township 15, Range 23, P. O. Spring Hill, was born in Iredell County, N. C., August 22, 1835. Was brought up in that locality. At the time of the breaking out of the late war he was holding the position of Postmaster at Enola, and during the first years of the troubles was exempted from military service, but was obliged to serve the last two years in the Confederate Army. MONTGOMERY COUNTY, IL, 1850 MORTALITY SCHEDULE - copied by Lynn Boyd Reener and Donna White Oller

The 1850 mortality schedule is on microfilm at the Illinois State Archives in Springfield, IL. The following was copied from a copy of that microfilm. We have tried to make this as accurate as possible. The writing was very hard to read and in some cases the ink had been smudged. If we still had questions about exactly what was written, there will be a question mark. All material was copied as it appeared.

Column Headings

1. name of every person who died during the year ending 1st june 1850, whose normal place of abode at the time of his death was in his family
2. age
3. sex
4. color - white, black, or mulatto
5. free or slave
6. married or widowed
7. place of birth - naming state, territory, or country
8. the month in which the person died
9. profession, occupations, or trade
10. disease or cause of death
11. number of days ill

Schedule 3. Persons who Died during the Year ending 1st June, 1850, in South West part of Dist. No. 22 in the County of Montgomery State of Illinois, enumerated by me, J.B. Roper Ass't. Marshal.

If you have not used the mortality schedules, you could be in for a pleasant surprise--I was.

Mortality Schedules contain the names of persons who died during the twelve-month period prior to the census year.

The 1850 and 1860 Mortality Schedules contain the information given above. In 1870 columns were added for the family number as shown in the census, father of foreign birth, mother of foreign birth. Also added were the color groups of Chinese and Indian. The columns for free or slave and days ill were deleted.

In 1880, the places of birth of the parents of the deceased were added.

Each page of each mortality schedule is headed with location, county, and state and name of asst. marshal. The bottom of each page has an area where the assistant marshal could record any remarks he felt were important.

The 1860 Mortality Schedule is included in our newest publication -- Montgomery County, Illinois, 1860 Census and Mortality Schedule.

EARLY HISTORY OF ST. MICHAEL'S EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH
Genealogical Society of Iredell Co., NC, Oct. 1982
Written by Ada Fayette Barringer, June 26, 1915
"The deed was given by Michael WALCHER in September 1823 to the trustees: Charles MILLS, Martin LIPPARD, Jacob TROUTMAN, and John HARKEY. The deed has in it the words 'on which the church now stands'."

LUTHERAN CHURCH IN AMERICA, 1100 E. 55th St., Chicago, IL 60615, Rodger D. Florreich, Assistant Archivist letter dated 14 Apr. 1983
"It is of interest to note that the Reverend Daniel Walcher was only licensed and never ordained by the North Carolina Synod."
enclosed with the letter was a sheet from: Chicago Lutheran Theological Seminary, ONWARD, GOES THE PILGRIM BAND, "Antecedents of the Illinois Synod", A dissertation submitted to the Graduate School in Partial Fulfillment of the Requirements for the Degree MASTER OF SACRED THEOLOGY, The Historical Field by The Reverand Teordore William Brosche, Maywood, Illinois, April 1950

"One of the first Lutheran ministers who ever set foot on Illinois soil was the Reverand Daniel Walcher. He was the Licentiate of the North Carolina Synod, and made a visit to this state in the summer of 1825. He visited the settlement in Union County, spending several of the summer months with the people there, preaching for them in the German language and baptizing their children. He traveled the whole way from Carolina and home again on horse-back. He had many 'hair-breadth' escapes, especially with the wolves. One night he had lost his way and could find no house. Wolves came near devouring him and his faithful old black horse. The only way he kept them off was by gathering sticks and keeping a large fire burning all night. His license was not afterwards renewed by the Synod. He became a farmer, and subsequently removed to Illinois, and lived and died and is buried near Hillsboro in Montgomery County."

MONTGOMERY COUNTY ILLINOIS INFO

Montgomery County, Illinois

About 30,000 live in quaint Montgomery County, located in central Illinois. The county was organized in 1821, and named for General Richard Montgomery, a Revolutionary War hero killed in the assault against Quebec on December 31, 1775.

Montgomery County cities include Butler, Fillmore, Litchfield, Ohlman, Raymond, Waggoner, Witt, and Hillsboro, the county seat. Hillsboro is also known as the "Bluegrass Capital of Illinois."

The first courthouse in Hillsboro was made of logs, the second was a frame structure with a mostly dirt floor, and the third was a two-story brick structure. The current courthouse was completed in 1873. A few bricks were salvaged from the previous structure and were used in the new building, and the Historic Courthouse now houses non-judicial offices, i.e. treasurer, county clerk, regional office of education, supervisor of assessments and county coordinator.

County residents enjoy a variety of outdoor sports, including hunting, fishing and boating. There are four lakes in Montgomery County: Lake Hillsboro, Glenn Shoals Lake, Lake Lou Yaeger and Coffeen State Lake.

For history buffs, there are also a number of museums:

- Harkey House Museum. Built in 1834, it is the oldest home in Hillsboro.
- Witt Community Museum
- Irving Area Historical Museum
- Panama Community Museum
- Fillmore Community Museum

The Harkey House stands at the corner of South Broad and Water Streets in Hillsboro.

by Richard Slepicka

The pioneer village of Hillsboro was less than a dozen years old when Solomon Harkey built his two-story Federal style home in 1834. The Harkey family came to Hillsboro in 1830 from Iredell County, North Carolina, and Solomon established a tannery in present day Central Park.

A plain house by today's standards, it must have seemed a mansion at a time when even the Montgomery County courthouse was a simple log structure.

In 1831 Solomon, pictured on the cover of this booklet, married Sophia Cress, the daughter of Jacob and Catharine Bost Cress, pioneer settlers in the Hillsboro area. Solomon, or Uncle Sol, as old accounts often refer to him, became a prominent citizen and land owner in Montgomery County. He was a noted horseman and stockman and first president of the Old Settlers Association. He died in 1892.

In later years, the property became the home of Mrs. Emma Gilmore, a music teacher in the Hillsboro schools, who lived in the house from 1905 to 1955. After her death, the property was sold to the Lingle Motor Company and was used for a warehouse. After destruction of the Hiram Rountree house and other old homes in the 1950s and 1960s, the Harkey House became the oldest house in Hillsboro.

In 1968, Lingle Motor Company decided to expand their operations to the property on which the Harkey House was located, just south of the present Hillsboro fire station. The house itself

Barb,

I haven't done any research at the Litchfield Library in about three years. I was very disappointed when I was there. When Deanie was the librarian, years ago, they put together an excellent collection. They now have a genealogy room but it is really small and books weren't in very good order. They do have newspaper and census records on microfilm, histories, the Sanders collection, and much more. It would probably be worth a look. On Mon they are suppose to be open 10-5.

Since I'm pretty much out of the loop any more, you might want to contact the genealogical society at Info@mcgsil.com It is my understanding that they now deposit some of their acquisitions in an office at Mac's Fire and Safety. If you email them, you'll probably get a reply from Bob Campbell who is the owner of Mac's (retired). He'll be able to give you more info.

Hillsboro has a library. I haven't been there for years; but, they used to have a lot of old Hillsboro newspapers. There was some kind of index, if I remember correctly.

Thanks for the picture. I'll print it out at work tomorrow. We have an excellent copier there.

Keep me posted,
Lynn

Lynn, at this point and time, our plans are to be in Litchfield on Sunday afternoon, stay there overnight and do the Litchfield library on Monday and possibly go to Hillsboro in the afternoon or on Tuesday, will see what we find in Litchfield. Hope Sunday afternoon we can visit and then take you and your husband to dinner that eve. ????? Would love to also spend time with you on Monday, but do not feel you need to take time off work...I know my vacation time was precious to me when I worked!

Here are my questions:
I have seen that Litchfield library is one of the better genealogy libraries in the county--do they have county histories?
Know you belong to the genealogy society there...so tell me about the library. Lots of Montgomery County records?

Know Hillsboro is the county seat and want to check out records at the court house and also see Harkey House. What else would I want to do there? Want wills and probate records.

Plan to see Page Walcher and Kathryn in Irving probably Tuesday depending upon what we do in Hillsboroon Monday. So you know them? They descend John Michael, Michael Simeon, Michael Elihu, Page. We will go to St. John's Cemetery and don't know where else, will let them direct us. If you do not know them, perhaps we can have dinner some evening, the three couples?

Am not sure about going to Pana at this time--am sending you separate email--it is a picture and was in the effects of a cousin in western OK. The picture was taken in Pana by photographer O.B. Tracey, no date or names on the picture. The cousin, Edna Walcher Roush, daughter of Jacob Franklin "Frank" Walcher, Enid, OK identified those in this picture as:
Those who I have living in Pana are: Luther Morgan Walcher, his wife Emma Platt and Webster Luther Walcher
What do you think--maybe submit a copy to Montgomery and Christian genealogy societies? We'll discuss next week.

Will probably have a million other questions...between now and then, will try to write them down. If you will let me know about Litchfield library and Hillsboro before we leave, I will really appreciate it. We will continuing on to Perry and Randolph counties to do research on Jack's families. Looking forward to hearing from you.

was offered to the Historical Society if it could be moved.

An architect and historian from the Illinois Department of Conservation pronounced the house structurally sound and "a classic example of braced frame construction with all hewn beams, joists and sill."

After a search for a suitable site, the Gillies property one block south of the original location of the Harkey House was acquired by the Society and the house was moved in October, 1968, by the Cruickshank Company of Springfield. It was moved in one piece, including the one-story portion, which it is believed was added to the original house in 1890.

During the moving process it was discovered that the walls of the Harkey House were lined with brick. A great many of the bricks were lost or dislodged when the house was moved, but one patch has been retained to show the original construction.

It was necessary to remove all the plaster in the two story portion of the house. Insulation and wiring were added and the walls replastered. There had never been a furnace in the house and the original wiring and plumbing were primitive, to say the least. A furnace was installed and an effort made to keep the heat registers as inconspicuous as possible. Originally, all windows in the older portion of the house were identical to those in the second story. The first floor windows were enlarged at a later date, possibly when the one story section was added.

The interior of the house was painted and wallpapered by Society members, and the house furnished almost entirely with pieces donated by members and friends.

The house is maintained by the Historical Society and restoration is ongoing.

The house is open 2 to 4 p.m. the first Sunday of the month April through November and during community celebrations such as Old Settlers.

Members of the Society also give private tours. School children are especially welcome. Contact Hillsboro City Clerk, 532-5566, or Hillsboro Chamber of Commerce, 532-3711.

At the age of seventeen years, actuated by a restless spirit of enterprise, he determined to leave the home of his fathers and try his fortune in the New World. Embarking at Bremen, he, in due time, landed in the city of New York. After a short stay, he proceeded to Cleveland, Ohio, where he remained till the fall of 1856.

The WALCHER'S OF ILLINOIS (from North Carolina)

Rose Faulkner

First off - many thanks to all those who helped with this record.
Lynn Reiner - Litchfield, Il.
Wendell Walcher - Grand Junction, Colo
Edna Roush - Enid, Okla.
Bessie K Lauer - Buffalo, Okla.

Also to the Gerald Tarter's of Taylorville, Ill. who drove me all over Christian Co., Il. to find cemetery records and marriage records of Edmond Walcher's family.

I hope there are not too many errors, I have tried to be accurate in recording, SO if you find anything v ry wrong let me know and I will try to get a note of it or them to those concerned.

My only connection to this whole family is:

1. Sarah Elizabeth Mills, dau of James Lee and Lucinda Summers Mills of Iredell Co., N. C. and Montgomery Co., Il.,who married Jacob Barringer of this history.

2. Sarah Elizabeth Mills, dau of John Baptist and Mariah Lents Mills of St. Mary's Co Md., and Iredell Co., N. C., who married Edmond Walcher of this history.

The 1790 census of Mecklenburg, N. C. gives the following:
Adam WALKER 2 M over 16 - 1 M under 16 and 2 Females.
Michael WALKER 1 M over 16 - 10 Females- both boys listed in Will were born aft 1790. There 9 girls apparently. ~~1790~~.
John Rickey 1 M over 16 - 3 females

The family of Dr. Dwaine Walcher of St. College, Pa furnished some of the material on Edmund Walcher.

If any of you have more info on your families, you can insert it after your parents or grandparents.

I have just finished reading the 1850 census of Iredell Co. N.C. and found the following living next door to each oth r: no twp or town shown
D. Harkey 34 N.C. - Esther 37 - Christina E 13 - Nancy H 10 - Wm. L 7 - Dactoril? 5 John H. F. 2/12,
Wm. E. WALKER 31 - Mary L 24 - James M 1 - ~~Ad~~
Adam Troutman 37 - Margaret 37 - Jacob C 15 - Sarah C 19 - john I 13 - Adam 10 Margaret 8 - Houston C 6 - Nancy M 4 - Daniel M 7/15 (this part of film read October)
John Walk r 45 N.C. - Margaret 50 - Margaret 10 - Mary 75 - Mar aret 42
1790 C N. Car
Adam and Michael Walker Mecklenburg Co., no slaves
Peter Troutman & Peter Jr Rowan Co., no slaves, Peter jr. 1 M o 16 2 u 16 2 females
No Winecoffs and no Paldridges - anyway it could be spelled
Henry Fesperman 1 M and 1 F(probably just married) Mecklenburg Co., also Fredrick, Micha and John none had slaves
John Richey 1 M o 16 and 3 F Necklenburg Co., No Slaves

Lutheran Church in America, 1100 E 55th St, Chicago, IL 60616, Rodger D Florreich, Assistant Archivist, letter dated 14 Apr 1983 - "It is of interest to note that the Reverend Daniel Walcher was only licensed and never ordained by the NC Synod."
Enclosed with the letter was a sheet from: Chicago Lutheran Theological Seminary, Onward, Goes the Pilgrim Band, "Antecedents of the IL Synod", A dissertation submitted to the Graduate School in Partial Fulfillment of the Requirements for the Degree "Master of Sacred Theology", the Historical Field by the Reverend Theodore William Brosche, Maywood, IL, Apr 1950. "One of the first Lutheran ministers who ever set foot on IL soil was the Rev Daniel Walcher. He was the Licentiate of the NC Synod, and made a visit to this state in the summer of 1825. He visited the settlement In Union Co, spending several of the summer months with the people there, preaching for them in the German language and baptizing their children. He traveled the whole way from Carolina and home again on horse-back. He had many 'hair-breadth' escapes, especially with the wolves. One night he had lost his way and could find no house. Wolves came near devouring him and his faithful old black horse. The only way he kept them off was by gathering sticks and keeping a large fire burning all night. His license was not afterwards renewed by the Synod. He became a farmer, and subsequently removed to IL, and lived and died and is buried near Hillsboro in Montgomery Co."

Personal Reminiscences of Lutheranism – by Rev S W Harkey D D

The following article is copied from the Lutheran Observer, published Philadelphia PA…Rev Daniel Walcher, spoken of in the article as the first Lutheran Minister of IL, resided near Litchfield IL, and to the reader, the more interesting because the aged widow of the Rev Daniel Walcher is now living and has been for several years, here in Pana…

(Rev S W Harkey) I have stated that my first visit to IL was made in the summer of 1838 and I was fourteen days in coming from Frederick, MD to St Louis MO, stopping two days in Cincinnati, having traveled by stage and private conveyance to Hillsboro IL

The prairie of IL were then in all their primitive glory, stretching out many miles in all directions, grass and flowers beneath and the Heavens above, no houses, farms, roads and often not a tree as far as the eyes could see. A grand sight to the newcomer. Every now and then a heard of deer bounding off gracefully over the vast plain as you travel on and numerous flocks of prairie chickens making things lively for you.

I landed at my father's house, in Hillsboro IL, on the 24th day of July 1838, just eight years and two months from the time I left home in NC as a poor farmer's boy, for Gettysburg PA to study for the ministry, during all which time I had not seen my parents, or any of the family and was now Pastor of the Lutheran Church of Frederick MD.

I found a large number of old neighbors and friends in this part of the state, who had emigrated from Carolina and I spent a month among them, preaching almost every day in some school-house or private home.

The Rev Daniel Scherer had come to Hillsboro in the fall of 1832 and had been looking after the "Lost Sheep" of our "Household of Faith" in almost all parts of Southern and Central IL.

The first settlement of Lutherans was made in IL, Union Co, 1817, in the southern part of the state of a few years later, settlements began to be made in Montgomery Co. The first Lutheran Church, some five miles from Jonesboro called St Johns. It was of logs, not unlike the log cabins of the pioneers. A neat frame Church House in which I, myself, had preached, now occupies the same site and is still called St Johns.

The first Lutheran Minister that ever set foot in IL soil, was the Rev Daniel Walcher, licentiate of the Synod of NC. He made a visit to this state in the summer of 1825, especially to the settlements of Union Co, spending several months with these people, preaching for them in the German language, baptizing their children, and comforting them by the Word of God.

He traveled the whole distance from Cabarrus Co NC and home again on horseback. I remember to have heard him preach in Carolina when I was a boy and tell about the country and the people and relate some of his adventures and "hair breath" escapes, which he had made, especially in crossing rivers and swamps, and how one night he was compelled to camp out alone, having lost his way and unable to find a hours, he and his faithful black horse, came near being devoured by wolves. Fortunately he came to a place where some one had camped the night before and left some fire. A pack of wolves came and howled around him and the only way he kept them off was by gathering sticks of wood and keeping a large fire blazing all night.

This man later removed to Montgomery Co and lived on a farm, the land adjoining the Corporation of what is now the City of Litchfield, but then a wild prairie.

He died and is buried not far from this place.

I preached in a lone school house on this same spot where this city of 5,600 inhabitants is now located.

Not long after Mr Walcher left Union Co, a European German Minister names Schoenbert, also from NC, whom I remembered personally as having staid for two weeks at my father's home, visited these people and became their Pastor...

Aug 1859, Elfred Boan and Josiah and Cynthia Kessinger gave the land to the Mt Zion Lutheran Church. Ralph Scherer gave his land with the family plot to the church and the graves were moved to this cemetery.

Corner Stone Laying

The Corner Stone of the new Saint Michael's Church was laid at Troutman's, North Carolina by the Pastor, Rev. H. Maxwell Brown, assisted by Rev. W.A. Lutz of Enochville, North Carolina, on Thursday, August 19th, 1886, according to the Form laid down in the Book of Worship of the Evangelical Lutheran General Synod in North America in its main features. In the box enclosed in the corner—a brick pillar—was deposited a Bible, a copy of the Minutes of the last meeting of the North Carolina Evangelical Lutheran Synod, a copy of the minutes of the Ev. Luth. General

Synod South, a copy each of the Lutheran Visitor and Our Church Paper (Weekly Lutheran newspaper), the names of the Pastors, the Assisting Minister [and Assistant on this occasion], the members of the present Church Council and the Building Committee. In the front of the same pillar—under the South corner of the church and facing the Soutwest—was inserted a marble tablet with the inscription:

St. Michael's
Evan Luth Church
Built 1886

Mr. William Pool, a builder of North Carolina College and many of the best houses in Statesville, NC and now a member of this congregation, did the masonry.

Rev. Lutz prefaced his sermon with the historic remarks on the Lutheran Church in the United States from the organization of the first general body in 1820. He referred to the dissension of a large mass of the ministers from parts of the Augsburg Confession and the tendency of a flood of German immigrants with German doctrines and usages, some twenty five years ago; of the translation of many of Luther's works into English & to the healing of these dissensions; so that these is growing unanimity in points of doctrine among the different bodies of Lutherans in the United States. His text was 1st Samuel 7:12—"Then Samuel took a stone and set it up between Mizpeh and Shen and called the name of it Ebenezer, saying Hitherto hath the Lord helped us." He referred also to Joshua 24:26, where a stone was used for a witness to Deuteronomy 27:1-8, and to the joy attending the first Corner Stone laying—Job 38:6&7. Etc, Etc.

After some remarks by the pastor on the immediate work of the congregation, a collection was taken, a hymn being sung at the same time and closed with a benediction.

The early records of this congregation have been lost or stolen. The date of the first building is unknown. The congregation organized in 1815. The deed for the land on which the old church stands was given by Mr. Michael Walcher (or Walkup), September 19, 1823. (Recorded in the office of the Registrar of Deeds, Statesville, Book U, page 10), about 1848-50. The church was enlarged by removing the log wall of the one side and adding sufficient frame to make it 36X50 feet. Last summer the congregation decided to rebuild, the new building to be at Troutman's, a steadily growing village and railroad station of about one hundred inhabitants and one-and-one-fourth miles northwest of the old church. The land deed was given March 9, 1885, by Mr. H.M. Brown, Mr. Jacob D. Troutman, and Dr. Richard W. Mills. The new church is 30X60 feet with tower nitche for pulpit and two small rooms—frame with plastering inside.

New Organization
Troutman's Presbyterian Congregation

Mr. Daniel Melchior, Mrs. Leah Melchior, Mr. John V. Melchior, Miss Martha J. Melchior, Miss Henrietta L. Melchior, Mrs. Margaret C. Seventeen Lutherans became dissatisfied with the doctrines and usages of the Lutheran Church as taught and preached at St. Michael's. obtained certificates of membership, and, with several members of the Presbyterian church, organized a Presbyterian congregation at Troutman's according to the rules of that denomination on Mar 14, 1885. Rev. P.P. Winn was their first pastor.

(This story was written by Rev. S.W.Harkey D.D.)
The first Lutheran Minister that ever set foot in Illinois soil, was the Rev. Daniel Walcher, a licentiate of the Synod of North Carolina. He made a visit to this state in the summer of 1825, especially to the settlements of Union County, spending several months with these people, preaching for them in the German Language, Baptizing their children, and comforting them by the Word of God. He traveled the whole distance from Carrabus County, North Carolina, and home again on horseback. I remember to have heard him preach in Carolina when I was a boy, and tell about the country and the people, and relate some of his adventures and "hair breadth" escapes, which he had made, especially in crossing rivers and swamps, and how one night he was compelled to camp out alone, having lost his way and unable to find a house, he and his faithful black horse, came near being devoured by wolves. Fortunately he came to a place where some one had camped the night before, and left some fire. A pack of wolves came and howled around him, and the only way he kept them off was by gathering sticks of wood and keeping a large fire blazing all night. This man later moved to Montgomery County and lived on a farm, the adjoining the corporation of what is now the City of Litchfield,Ill. but then a wild prarie. He died and is buried not far from this place, Elmwood Cemetery-Land donated by the Walchers. I preached in a lone school house (standing on this same spot where this city of 5,600 inhabitants is now located (Litchfield). Not long after Mr. Walcher left Union County, a European German Minister named Shoenberg, also from North Carolina, whom I remembered personally as having stayed for two weeks at my Father's home visited these people and became their Pastor. I think he was the first Lutheran Pastor to settle in this State, an educated man, had something of a library, and spent seve.al years here preaching in the German Language. He had no family and after a time left his Library and some property and started down the Mississippi on a trip to New Orleans, intending to be gone some months, but he never returned and as far as I've been able to learn, no one knows what became of him.

HISTORY OF THE HEFLEY AND WALCHER FAMILY

(From the writings of Jesse L. Hefley--1st cousin of CDL Walcher.)

"For the pioneer urge had been strong in the Hefley's and the Walchers for generations. They had come, originally just two small families, from Germany and settled, along with a group of German families, in Pennsylvania. Family legend has it that an epidemic of some sort developed on board ship. The Hefley father died, leaving his wife and little boy; the Walcher mother also died, leaving her husband and two or three small children. Some time later, having arrived and settled in their new homes, the remaining parents married each other." In telling this story my mother (Aunt Clementine Walcher Hefley) would always end with. "and it was from that one little boy that all the Hefleys in America are descended. Be that as it may, the German colony, or a portion of it, migrated in a generation to North Carolina and thence to Illinois. And it was to Illinois, in Montgomery Co. that my father (Uncle Lemuel Hefley) returned after the Civil War, to select a bride from among the Walchers, and to settle down to farming, the traditional family vocation. It was there I was born, but my earliest recallections are of preparation for departure to a new land and a better life. Kansas had been much in the news, during the war and after;(1871) It seemed to be the frontier of the day--so to Kansas we were bound. Father, Mother, Henry, Hank and Jesse and a distant cousin of Mothers, Joe Rumpel. Took the ferry across the Mississippi at St Louis with wagon and team of horses. First settled in Howard Co. "We fared better than many of the settlers because my father was a hunter." The timber and creek bottoms abounded with game of many sorts. Father owned an old long squirrel rifle and he used it with great success. Much of the time we had a freshly killed carcass of deer hanging about the place--also wild turkey, squirrels, rabbits, quail, prairie chickens, ducks and geese all from time to time--paid tribute to his marksmanship. Fish too! Traded home and land in Howard Co. Kansas, to a roving preacher (Disciple Church or Campbellete), for a home in Woodson Co. (Belmont, Kansas). Big white two story house and was postmaster there. (Great Uncle Lemuel Hefley) House also served as Wayside Inn. 1874---grasshopper year--swarms numbered in billions--ate everything in their path. I think the relatives were discovering that we had a big house. A brother of my mother, John Henry,(my grandfather), a minister of the Evangelical Lutheran Church (Missouri Synod) had been living and preaching in western Missouri and Eastern Kansas (Jefferson Co.) He died suddenly leaving a widow and five small boys and little in the way of support. (AMB and his brothers). They had drifted back to the family in Illinoiw and later to the Welker home near Perryville Missouri. For some reason Aunt Lucretia (Ferns grandmother, Elizabeth Lucretia Welker Walcher) determined to head west and arrangements were made for them to spend the winter with us. My father took his wagon and team and went over into Missouri to meet them and bring them home. Someone from the old neighborhood in Perryville, Mo. brought them part way. The clan was gathering and the big house was bulging. We boys who were old enough all went to a little school there in the bush about a mile from our village. John Walcher seemed not to have become discouraged by the grasshoppers experience and planned to go back to his Sumner Co. claim in the spring. There was unoccupied land there to be had for the taking, and a dollar and a quarter an acre due and payable fbefore the claim could be proved up. My fathers eyes glowed as the folks would sit around the fire and discuss the possibilities. John Walcher and Pa (Uncle Lem) went during the winter to see it. (Sumner Co.) He filed on a quarter section adjoining Johns place and came home determined to move in the spring. "We had two Albert Walchers with us now. One was John Walcher's boy and the other Aunt Lucretia's oldest boy, about 14, or five years older than I." He was already his mothers right arm and a real man in his household. (AMB Walcher). The two Alberts, having been brought together at our place, something had to be done to distinguish them, so they became, and so remained, Big Al and Little Al, based upon their ages. The Hefley's and John Walcher families along with U.S. Walcher, one of Aunt Lucretia's boys set out for Sumner Co. We had two wagons and 8 head of milk cows. U.S.came along to help with the cows. Aunt Lucretia and the rest of her family were to come later.

(Written by Fern Walcher Arnspiger Hyten)

The Walcher family came oringinally from Germany, first settling in Pennsylvania. Later they migrated to North Carolina and then to Montgomery County, Illinois.

Grandfather John Henry Walcher married Elizabeth Lucretia Welker. They were both born in the 1830's. The Welker home was located near Perryville, Missouri. Grandfather John H Walcher enlisted in the Civil War with the Union Forces on October 18, 1861. He served in Company F, 5th Regiment, Infantry, Missouri Volunteers. He served only a short time, being discharged because of poor eyesight. He then studied for the ministry and came to Jefferson County Kansas where he farmed and preached. He preached in the Lutheran Church. It was in Jefferson County he died and is buried. Grandmother Lucretia Walcher took her little family of boys back to the Welker home in Missouri for a time. They also spent some time with relatives in Hillsboro, Illinois. Later they came to Belmont, Kansas in Woodson County to spend a winter with the Hefleys. Great Aunt Clementine Hefley was a sister of Grand-father John Henry Walcher.

Kansas was much in the news at that time as a new frontier, with land to be had for the taking plus a dollar and a quarter an acre. So, in April of 1875, the Hefley family, another John Walcher family and Grandmother Lucretia Walcher with her boys, came to Sumner County, ten miles south of Wellington and filed their claims. The Hefleys lived where Bob Walcher, and now Merle Walcher lives; the John Walcher's lived across the road and Grandmother

Kathleen, I do not have any additional info on Dorothea, just the marriage date. I received the info from either the Illinois Statewide Marriage Index (http://www.cyberdriveillinois.com/departments/archives/marriage.html) or from Lynn Reener Boyd in Litchfield, Montgomery County, IL (lynnreener@msn.com). Lynn is my contact for the Harkey family, she lives in the area where the Harkeys when they moved from NC. Sorry I can not be of further help.

I would request a copy of the marriage lic in Adams County, it might have the names of one of her parents or family. Would then look at census for Langs in the county, perhaps would find Dorthea in her family in 1850-somewhere in the general area of Adams County. But don't discount the idea of mail order brides during that period. Just a couple of ideas.

I would like to keep your information in my file, would you please email me your complete name (husband) and address, just in case you change your email address in the future. If I have other info on the Harkeys, I will be happy to share with you.
Good Luck!

INTRODUCTION

Welcome . . .

'This is Montgomery County,' an area rich in history and tradition. This guide, the fourth in our series, is brought to you through the efforts of the staff of The Montgomery County News and our many advertisers.

Our goal is to provide an annual reference guide of information useful to county residents, new and old, as well as the many, many visitors who make Montgomery County a stop of a day, a week, or, perhaps, a lifetime.

Our county offers a wide variety of activities and opportunities for those of us who live here and those coming for a visit, whether overnight or for several days. We hope this will help you enjoy our county even more.

In this year's guide you'll find information about the county's communities, with an emphasis on their history and traditions.

County residents are proud of their history and heritage. Small museums in different communities, monuments to those who died in wars long ago and the enjoyment of town celebrations are evidence of that pride.

An index on page three will help you find your way around the guide.

Thank you again for taking the time to "look us over." Extra copies of the guide are available at many of the advertisers, at city and village halls, chamber of commerce offices, hotels, motels, and at The Montgomery County News on Historic Courthouse Square in Hillsboro and in Litchfield on North State Street.

Pass on the word that Montgomery County is a great place to live and visit.

Thank you.

COVER STORY

The county can boast of several small museums that preserve the rich history and traditions of the men and women who were born here or made the county their home.

On the top of the cover is a photo from the Witt Labor Day celebration. Taken in 1909, the photo is part of the collection housed in the Witt Historical Museum.

The three baseball card photos are of Jim Bottomley, Red Ruffing and Ray Schalk. The three played ball in the county as young men and eventually made it into the Baseball Hall of Fame. The B-R-S Baseball Museum in Nokomis is where you will find their lives celebrated.

Solomon Harkey didn't know when he built his home in Hillsboro in 1834 that it would one day be a museum. It is now the property of the Historical Society of Montgomery County.

The bottom photo was taken in the Panama Mine and is now part of a large collection of photos of local people and events in a small museum in the Panama Village Hall.

See stories inside on these local museums.

Museums In County Towns Celebrate The Past

Witt Area Historical Museum - County's Newest

The county's newest museum opened during Witt's biggest celebration of the year, Labor Day, 1997. But an even bigger celebration is planned this Labor day as the organizers of the museum plan not only a first anniversary celebration, but also a tribute to the 1928 Witt Speedboy basketball team that finished third in the state that year.

Larry Miller, president of the Witt Historical Development Commission, and one of the main organizers of the Witt museum, said that in addition, a special tribute to the men who served during World War I will also be presented. It will include mementos from the Great War connected with Witt area men who served then.

The museum is located on Broadway, across from the Post Office and is open by appointment only from about Christmas to Labor Day. The rest of the year, Miller said, the directors of the museum try to have someone open the display to the public every Saturday morning.

Phone numbers of those volunteers willing to come down and open for special tours are posted on the window. They include: Miller at 594-7741; Mary Fath, 594-7754; Barb Golitko, 594-2883; and Emily Korbar, 594-7748.

Much of the display is memorabilia and photos from Witt School. There are also many photos from past Labor Day celebrations. The annual Witt early September celebration is the county's longest running and largest to commemorate Labor Day.

Miller said he hopes to add mementos from important Witt area sports figures, including baseball major leaguers Paul Chervinko and Glenn Hobbie.

There will also be special displays from time to time. Witt welcomes everyone to stop by whenever possible to visit and enjoy the community's rich history.

The Witt Speedboys made their best finish ever in the state baskeball tournament in 1928 when they finished third. Larry Miller, one of the Witt Area Museum organizers, holds the trophy the team won.

'They Died That The Nation Might Live'

A Union soldier has stood in Elmwood Cemetery, Litchfield, for over 125 years in silent tribute to the fallen of the nation's greatest war. Work on the memorial began soon after the Civil War was over, and the base was dedicated July 4, 1868. But a controversy arose about which direction the statue should face. Finally it was decided the soldier would look north, toward the Union. The monument was finished in 1872.

Small Museum Keeps Alive The Town's Lively History

One Man's Passion For Local History

For many years Norman Compton of Panama, whose family has a long history in the community, had thought about how to best preserve his town's memories, before they were lost. "About three or four years ago," Compton said, "I had the idea to begin collecting as many photos as I could."

Now his dream is a reality, thousands of photos of Panama area people, events, school children, buildings, and more, are collected in a room in the Village Hall, the former school building.

There are pictures of people working, playing, in school, engaged in sports, pictures of bridges, creeks, churches, cemeteries, coal mine workers, the downtown, sports, soldiers, and even the town's most famous accordion player.

All of the photos displayed belong to Compton. When someone loans him a photo he doesn't have, he foots the bill to have a copy made for his display, then returns the original to the owner.

There are a few items that have been donated to the museum, including several items from the Panama mine.

He continues to look for more photos and memorabilia for his display. He'll be glad to accept any artifacts, trivia and other ideas and memories about the town's history.

Compton has done most of the work himself and is always glad to open the museum to family reunions. It's also always open on Memorial Day.

All of the collecting means much work, but it's worth it. Compton tells of one older gentleman who visited the museum and asked if he had a photo of a certain individual. Compton did, and he pointed it out to the man.

The old man stood silently for a time and then said, tearfully, that this was the first time he had ever seen a picture of his father, who had died when he was very young.

Compton can be reached at (217) 537-3334.

Accessible Litchfield Library Has Genealogy Collection

The Carnegie Public Library at Litchfield has been undergoing extensive renovation since January, 1995, and time of completion is estimated for sometime in the year 2000.

The library has complied with the Americans with Disabilities Act by making the building accessible with an elevator at the east entrance. The elevator serves all three levels.

There are approximately 38,000 volumes contained in the library. These include adult and children's books, reference books, magazines and periodicals, video and audio cassettes. An inter-library loan service is available with access to over 800 different libraries throughout Illinois and the Midwest. The public is welcome to use the computer, fax machine, and copy machine, and access to the internet is available.

When the renovation is complete, the main floor of the library will contain reference books, non-fiction books, audio and visual tapes. The second floor will hold adult fiction, a genealogy section and public meeting room. The basement area will be devoted to the children's library with a story hour room. Additional storage space and public restrooms, which will be handicapped accessible, will also be contained in the basement.

Looking for someone from long ago?

Litchfield Carnegie Public Library is well-known for its genealogy section. A partial list of items includes census records for Montgomery and surrounding counties, books on local history, indexes to marriage records, many family histories and cemetery records, among others.

A microfilm reader printer is available with microfilm copies of Litchfield newspapers since 1857, and federal censuses are on microfilm from 1850 through 1920. Copies can be made of microfilmed information at 25 cents per page.

A collection of the Genealogical Society magazine is available, as well as old Litchfield City Directories and histories of other counties and states.

Pioneer Home Is Often A Classroom

Hillsboro's Harkey House Is A County Treasure

The pioneer village of Hillsboro was less than a dozen years old when Solomon Harkey built his two-story Federal style home in 1834. The Harkey family came to Hillsboro in 1830 from Iredell County, North Carolina, and Solomon established a tannery in present day Central Park.

A plain house by today's standards, it must have seemed a mansion at a time when even the Montgomery County courthouse was a simple log structure.

In 1831 Solomon, pictured on the cover of this booklet, married Sophia Cress, the daughter of Jacob and Catharine Bost Cress, pioneer settlers in the Hillsboro area. Solomon, or Uncle Sol, as old accounts often refer to him, became a prominent citizen and land owner in Montgomery County. He was a noted horseman and stockman and first president of the Old Settlers Association. He died in 1892.

In later years, the property became the home of Mrs. Emma Gilmore, a music teacher in the Hillsboro schools, who lived in the house from 1905 to 1955. After her death, the property was sold to the Lingle Motor Company and was used for a warehouse. After destruction of the Hiram Rountree house and other old homes in the 1950s and 1960s, the Harkey House became the oldest house in Hillsboro.

In 1968, Lingle Motor Company decided to expand their operations to the property on which the Harkey House was located, just south of the present Hillsboro fire station. The house itself was offered to the Historical Society if it could be moved.

An architect and historian from the Illinois Department of Conservation pronounced the house structurally sound and "a classic example of braced frame construction with all hewn beams, joists and sill."

After a search for a suitable site, the Gillies property one block south of the original location of the Harkey House was acquired by the Society and the house was moved in October, 1968, by the Cruickshank Company of Springfield. It was moved in one piece, including the one-story portion, which it is believed was added to the original house in 1890.

During the moving process it was discovered that the walls of the Harkey House were lined with brick. A great many of the bricks were lost or dislodged when the house was moved, but one patch has been retained to show the original construction.

It was necessary to remove all the plaster in the two story portion of the house. Insulation and wiring were added and the walls replastered. There had never been a furnace in the house and the original wiring and plumbing were primitive, to say the least. A furnace was installed and an effort made to keep the heat registers as inconspicuous as possible.

Furnishings range from pioneer days of the spinning wheel to a late 19th century secretary-bookcase. See photo next page.

Originally, all windows in the older portion of the house were identical to those in the second story. The first floor windows were enlarged at a later date, possibly when the one story section was added.

The interior of the house was painted and wallpapered by Society members, and the house furnished almost entirely with pieces donated by members and friends.

The house is maintained by the Historical Society and restoration is ongoing.

The house is open 2 to 4 p.m. the first Sunday of the month April through November and during community celebrations such as Old Settlers.

Members of the Society also give private tours. School children are especially welcome. Contact Hillsboro Chamber of Commerce, 532-3711, or Hillsboro City Clerk, 532-5566.

Honoring Soldiers, Sailors

The Soldiers' and Sailors' Monument near the entrance to Oak Grove Cemetery in Hillsboro was dedicated November 7, 1902. Despite the chilly weather, a lengthy procession formed at the courthouse for the march to the cemetery. The procession was headed by a band and escorted by Company E of the Illinois National Guard. Given the place of honor in the group of marchers were veterans of the Civil and Spanish-American Wars, followed by a large group of school children, members of the Women's Relief Corps, Royal Neighbors, Eastern Star, and other organizations.

At the cemetery, the invocation was given and the monument unveiled while the children sang.

The monument was cut from blue Bedford limestone at Bedford, Indiana. On one side was inscribed "In Honor of Our Fallen Heroes" 1861-1865, and on the other, "To the Soldiers of the Spanish-American War, 1898." The dates of the 1917-1918, 1941-1945, and 1950-1953 wars have been added.

The proposal to erect such a monument had been discussed for a number of years, but only a small amount of money had been collected until the Women's Relief Corps took on the project in 1902. In six months they raised $553.59, mostly from contributions of $1.

Memorial Day services were held at the cemetery in front of the monument for many years.

Like Fishing And Camping?

Plan To Spend Time At Hillsboro's Lake Glenn Shoals

Spring, summer and fall are all excellent times to explore and fish Lake Glenn Shoals just north of Hillsboro.

The lake contains largemouth bass, crappies, hybrid stripers, tiger muskies, channel cats, bluegills and walleyes.

Lake Glenn Shoals and nearby Lake Hillsboro are part of a recreation area managed by the City of Hillsboro. Docks, north and south marinas, and Sherwood Forest Campground with showers and electrical hookups are open from mid-April to Oct. 15.

Any size motor can be used on this 1,200-acre lake, but boaters must obey posted speed limits.

Daily boat permits are just $6.00 and are good also on Lake Hillsboro just a quarter-mile away. Small lakeshore lots can be leased from the city.

Lake Glenn Shoals has a reputation as a productive largemouth lake. The bass have a respectable average size, and the population compares favorably with some of Illinois' better bass lakes. Bass structure includes the submerged creek channel, standing timber and points.

The Department of Natural Resources originally stocked the lake with crappies, bluegills, largemouth bass, redear, channel catfish, tiger muskies, hybrid-striped bass and walleyes. The two hybrid species, of course, do not reproduce and are supported through periodic stockings.

In addition, the City of Hillsboro built a rearing pond that is stocked with 15,000 largemouth bass annually added to the lake.

The hybrids are so new that many Illinois fishermen are just learning how to catch them. The best time to go after hybrids is early in the morning or late in the evening, when they are busting shad on the surface.

Some of the hybrids slip over the dam and provide good fishing in the creek. During spring and fall, the fishing is good at the dam, below the dam and in the creek feeding the lake.

During other times of the year, hybrids are caught by trolling along the submerged creek channel or near points and other structures. Largemouth fishermen often catch hybrids, giving them a chance to tangle with a great fighter. Hybrids are generally bigger and feistier than largemouths.

Tiger muskies also put up a good fight. The muskies are sometimes caught by crappie anglers fishing in the standing timber found throughout the lake. Bait fish are attracted to standing timber, which in turn attracts the tiger muskies.

Fishing licenses, boat permits, fuel, bait and tackle are all available at The Landing marina on the south end of Lake Glenn Shoals just west of the dam.

The Landing sponsors a fishing tourney every Wednesday evening, 5-8 p.m. and an all-you-can-eat fish fry every Friday, 5-8 p.m. A boat show is scheduled there June 6-7, 1998.

The Landing restaurant (532-6534) is open weekends only until May 21. Summer season hours May 21-Sept. 7 are Thursday-Monday, 7 a.m. to 9 p.m.; closed Tuesday; open Wednesday 12:00 noon to 8 p.m.

Storied Road Passes Through County

Route 66 'Carrier Of People, Freight And Dreams'

"Carrier of people, freight and dreams."

That is one description of U.S. Route 66, a 2,400-mile highway which opened in 1926, crossed 18 states from Illinois to California, and which was the nation's most famous and beloved road for 50 years. In 1976 interstate highways began replacing Route 66 and by 1984 it was no longer a part of our national highway system.

The Route 66 Tour Guide and Hall of Fame brochure says, "Its signs came down and it disappeared from the maps of America. But it did not disappear from the hearts and minds of Americans."

The pavement is still there. In Illinois, for example, more than 90 percent of Route 66 survives. You can travel it from Chicago to St. Louis and less than 18 miles are on interstate "detours."

Route 66 travels through Montgomery County from Farmersville, on the frontage road to Litchfield, then south on Route 66 through Litchfield to the Macoupin County line just south of Litchfield.

Litchfield has hosted the Route 66 Association of Illinois Motor Tour several times in past years, usually in conjunction with the Wolfpack Auto Show in the spring. However, it will not come through Litchfield this year because of a conflict in dates. The car show will be held, however, on Sunday, June 7.

Many books have been written about what has been called the Main Street of America, and they can be found in most libraries and book stores.

Several area businesses carry a line of Route 66 souvenirs and collectibles, such as caps; t-shirts, cups, and pennants.

Montgomery County Formed In 1821

Named After Revolutionary War Hero

There were few white settlers in the area of Montgomery County prior to 1816. But it didn't take long for it to become settled.

When they arrived, they found the area was populated by scattered settlements of Kickapoo Indians. White people drifted in and settled, first in the southeast part of the county, arriving most immediately from Bond and Fayette counties.

The new arrivals built homes and began to farm along Hurricane Creek in the VanBurenburg area and in the Clear Springs neighborhood of Shoal Creek.

After the War of 1812, Congress awarded each soldier who had served a bonus of 160 acres of "Soldiers' Bounty Lands" in the then Illinois Territory. It was an award, but also an incentive to populate the western lands.

Early residents of the area, including John Tilson, Jr., Hiram Rountree, Israel Seward and Eleaser Townsend, petitioned the state legislature to allow formation of Montgomery County on February 12, 1821, just three years after the state itself was officially organized. The area was then part of Bond County.

When the county was organized, it included all of its present boundary and more, except for Audubon Township, the township and a half that is now east of Nokomis and Witt Townships. That land was part of Fayette County but was added to Montgomery in 1827.

Montgomery County at that time also included parts of eight additional townships to the north of Raymond, Rountree and Nokomis and east of Bois D'Arc and Harvel Townships. In 1839, when Dane County was formed, most of those were detached and the present line was finally set. Dane County was later renamed Christian County.

The county was named for General Richard Montgomery, a Revolutionary War hero killed in the assault against Quebec on December 31, 1775.

First county seat

On March 21, 1821, in a cabin located in the Taylor Springs area, three special commissioners met to decide on a site for a county seat. They voted to establish it about three miles southwest of present day Hillsboro. It would be called Hamilton.

The town was established, log cabins built, a store opened and logs even cut for a courthouse to be built there.

But then three men got themselves named as new special commissioners by the state legislature and they proceeded to relocate the county seat to a different site on 20 acres owned by Newton Coffey, where downtown Hillsboro is now located.

The new site was quickly approved by county commissioners, also newly appointed by the state legislature. The commissioners included Major James Wilson, Harris Reavis and Newton Coffey.

Once the county was organized, a county commissioners' court was held and the first county officers appointed. First county sheriff was Joel Wright; clerk, Hiram Rountree; coroner, Jarvis Forehand; treasurer, John Tilson; L.M. Townsend, probate judge and James Wright and Daniel Meredith, first constables of the county.

Tilson, said to be the first merchant in the new county seat, also became the first postmaster and built the first brick house in the county.

The first courthouse was a 20 foot by 24 foot, two story structure built of "hewn logs" and partially completed for the first term of circuit court to be held there June 17 and 18, 1824.

The second courthouse, a frame structure begun in 1833, was also two-story, 40 by 20 feet, and two/thirds of the first floor courtroom was a dirt floor.

In 1854 a two-story brick structure replaced the frame building. It had four large white columns in front supporting a portico facing the main street.

The present courthouse was completed in 1873 at a cost of over $100,000. A few bricks were salvaged from the previous structure and were used in the new building.

B-R-S Baseball Museum Is Growing

Nokomis Museum Is A Tribute To Sports Memories

James LeRoy "Sunny Jim" Bottomley, Charles Herbert "Red" Ruffing and Raymond William "Cracker" Schalk—the names themselves carry us back to an age of innocence in America, an age when major league ball players often participated in pick-up games with the guys back home when they weren't traveling with their major league team.

But they also harken back to a time when there were examples of small town values and the heroes who lived them stood tall. It was "Cracker" Schalk who was, after all, the only major Chicago White Sox player not implicated in one of the greatest scandals ever in the game of baseball.

Visitors to Nokomis have a chance to step back in time, to look at the photos and read the stories of the small town heroes who grew up and learned their beloved game in their youth, the early years of which were spent in Montgomery County.

The men who remember those heroes keep their memories alive in a special small museum in downtown Nokomis. They're glad to show you the memorabilia they've collected.

Many of them remember seeing their heroes play. Others only heard about them from their fathers.

The B-R-S Baseball museum, as one of the volunteer attendants said, is open from 9 a.m. to noon, "pretty much everyday" and the coffee pot is always on.

The men who gather there each day to visit, continue to work on improvements to the display. The museum was recently moved to a newer, larger building and special exhibits are being built for the three featured athletes.

And if you plan your visit right, you might find an old-time player or two stopping by to pay their respects.

In the past, the museum has entertained some of the greats including Stan Musial and Robin Roberts, and some of

H & B Bremer Sanctuary

Expression Of Love Of Wildlife, Land's Natural Resources

Through the vision and generosity of two sisters, descendants of original 1850 settlers, a century-old farm is now devoted to the preservation and protection of wildlife, both flora and fauna, and the land's natural resources.

The H & B Bremer Wildlife Sanctury is an excellent example of the transition zone between the flat prairie province to the north and the rolling plain to the south. It provides a sustainable habitat for a great diversity of plant and animal communities.

The sanctuary is the home site of one of the county's early pioneers, William Henry Bremer, who came in 1850 to this country from Hanover, Germany. He brought with him his family and a desire to continue his agricultural pursuits. He purchased by Land Grant 50 acres, built a home and there raised his family of five children. That original home remained until it burned this past spring.

In 1885, John Henry Bremer, Sr., bought by Land Grant, the adjacent land, bordered on the east by his father's farm. Ten years later the farm comprised 300 acres of highly improved land including a handsome residence with all the modern conveniences.

When John's son, Henry, died in 1976, he left his farm to his two daughters, Helen and Betty Bremer. They, with their stong love of the land of their ancestors, dedicated their energies to the conservation and protection of wildlife and the land's natural resources. They decided that the Illinois Audubon Society was the best organization to maintain their ideas of preservation and protection at their demise.

In 1980, the Illinois Audubon Society gave the Bremer Sanctuary its charter, now known as Hickory Hills Chapter of the Illinois Audubon Society. Since that time much of the property has been essentially undisturbed. Nature is erasing signs of human disturbance as the land gradually returns to its pre-settlement state.

In 1982 Betty died and Helen inherited her holdings. Helen maintains an interest in the chapter. Her goals are the same—preservation of both wildlife and habitat, a place where birds and other creatures and plants are safe from hunting, trapping, collecting, and habitat destruction.

The sanctuary can be reached by traveling 3/4 mile north out of Hillsboro on the North Road, then turning west (left) onto the first of two adjacent roads. Follow the lower road uphill past one house (on the left) until it dead ends at a parking lot in front of "the barn."

The sanctuary has no full-time personnel. However, anyone interested should call Jim Kenney, 532-2536 and arrangements can be made for a visit.

Due to the nature of the area there is no smoking, no campfires, no pets except on leash, no all-terrain vehicles. Hunting, trapping and alcoholic beverages are not allowed.

The chapter continues to make improvements, adding bluebird houses along the bluebird trail, etc.

Preserving, Restoring Our Natural Heritage

Site At Lake Lou Yaeger Helps Us See Our Past

Shoal Creek Nature Preserve, located on the east side of the dam at Lake Lou Yaeger, near Litchfield, consists of over 250 acres in an area now known as Shoal Creek Barrens and owned by the City of Litchfield.

In 1989, the city passed an ordinance to protect the savanna/woodland type site and appointed Henry Eilers, local nurseryman, as site steward.

The Shoal Creek Barrens was recently given a Grade "A" rank by the Illinois Natural Areas Inventory following a three-year survey of the State. Only three areas in Illinois were recognized as Grade "A" quality, and all three are in Montgomery County. They are Shoal Creek Barrens, Robert's Cemetery, and Rocky Ford.

A volunteer organization called Shoal Creek Volunteers was formed in an attempt to restore the area to its native state prior to the introduction of farming and livestock. Overgrown vegetation has been cleared, prairie and woodland seeds sowed, and among the many projects of the local Rotary Club were the creation of a marked nature trail, establishment of bluebird nesting boxes, and identification and labeling of native trees. Pamphlets describing the trail are available at the entrance to the Rotary Trail, as well as an information board identifying plants, birds and trees found within the preserve.

A number of plant species have reappeared, including several that were thought to be extinct in the area. In all, over 678 species of plants have been identified, over two dozen new ones in the past two years.

Bird watching is a popular activity at the preserve. During the summer of 1995, 58 species were classified as to breeding status, with 26 confirmed breeders.

Butterflies are monitored, and more than 69 species have been identified, which makes the preserve first in number of species in the state for property of similar size. An extremely rare butterfly for this location was recently sighted. It is cur-

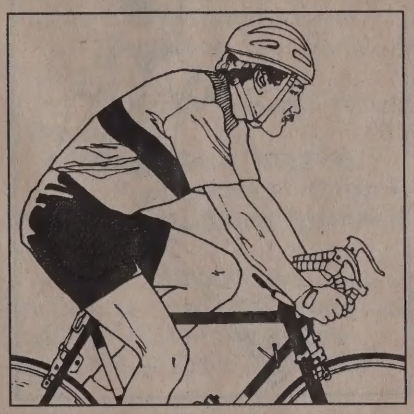
Over 50 trophies in nine male and female age groups are awarded, plus overall awards to the top three male and female finishers, and 1st place trophies to the fastest man and woman from Hillsboro.

Team biathlon awards go to 1st, 2nd and 3rd place teams.

All participants receive free biathlon t-shirts and refreshments.



Entrants must check in and pick up their race packets between 6:00 and 7:00 a.m. on Saturday, July 4. The race starts promptly at 7:30.

Entry fees for the biathlon are $20 until June 14, $25 after June 14 and on race day; for team biathlon, $30 until June 14, then $35.

Volkswalk Open Year-Round

Points Of Interest On 10-Kilometer Trail

A 10-kilometer route through historic Hillsboro is a sanctioned as a year-round volkswalk event with the American Volkssport Association (AVA), a member of the International Federation of Popular Sports (IVV). The event counts toward acquisition of IVV Achievement Awards.

In case you don't know, a volkssporting event is an organized, noncompetitive walk, bike, swim or cross-country ski designed to appeal to everyone.

Events are open to the public, and are a great way to meet new people, walk areas and parks never before seen up close, and generally enjoy nature at its best.

Hillsboro's volkswalk starts and finishes at the Red Rooster Inn on the east side of Courthouse Square. Trail maps are available there, as well as official AVA/IVV distance record books ($5 each).

The trail is open seven days a week, except New Year's Day and Christmas Day, rain or shine, hot or cold. The event is free and open to the public. The AVA/IVV credit will cost $2, and "B" awards with IVV credit for the event are $3.

The trail is rated 1.5 on a 5.0 scale. It is mostly on level ground following city sidewalks, but also follows the shoulder of unpaved roads where sidewalks to not exist. The trail would be difficult for wheelchairs or wheeled strollers.

Local Lake Is Central Illinois Hotspot

Coffeen State Fish & Wildlife Area Is Fishermen's Favorite

Coffeen Lake, south of Coffeen, is a favorite place for fishermen from throughout central and southern Illinois and Missouri.

The lake is owned by Central Illinois Public Service Co., but in 1986 the Illinois Department of Natural Resources signed a 25-year lease to manage the lake and certain acreage for public recreational use. Fishing, boating, picnicking, hunting and other activities are currently offered.

In 1963, CIPS built a 75-foot high earthen dam on a branch of the east Fork of Shoal Creek. The lake was completely filled by 1966 and now serves as cooling water for the coal-fired Coffeen Power Station.

The power station has a generating capacity of 945 megawatts of electricity, with the first unit coming into operation in 1965 and the larger, second unit in 1972.

The heated discharge affects 73% of Coffeen Lake's surface water. The cooling loop is 4.1 miles.

Natural Scene

The oak-hickory forests surrounding Coffeen Lake are representative of the native cover found within the Southern Till Plain Natural Division of central and southern Illinois. Soils are of loess and till, rather light and a characteristic "claypan" can be found.

was a mixture of 60% forest to 40% prairie and wetlands. A variety of trees, woodland and prairie plants cover the slopes of the stream valley.

Visitors may also find a diverse wildlife community. Muskrats, turtles, herons and mussels are seen in or near the water. Red-tailed hawk, blue jay or a dragonfly might be seen in the air.

Bobwhite, coyote, white-tailed deer and black rat snake are common to the area. The opportunity to observe and enjoy the area's rich wildlife heritage is available.

The Lake

Coffeen Lake boasts an excellent bass and channel catfish population. Twenty-two species of fish are present in the lake, but most anglers seek bass, white crappie and channel catfish.

The lake is deeper than most Illinois lakes, averaging nearly 19 feet with a maximum depth of 59 feet. Coffeen Lake has nearly 50 miles of shoreline.

Power plant operation noticeably influences fish activity and fishing success. Fish growth appears to be faster than in many other lakes, however.

Boating: A two-lane ramp and two single-lane ramps provide access for launching. Motors of 25 horsepower or less are allowed.

Sailboating, swimming and water skiing are prohibited. Boat and water safety is urged.

Fishing: Bank fishing is available at all boat access areas. Considerable acreage is open for bank fishing where parking is present. Posted site specific regulations for bass and crappie are enforced. All fishing tournaments must be scheduled through the site office.

Picnicking, camping concessions: Toilets, drinking water and picnic facilities are available at the main access area. A private campground is located just to the north of the main access area. Bait, supplies and food can be obtained there.

Hunting: Deer hunting is allowed in season. Check site specific regulations at site office.

Trapping: A controlled aquatic furbearer trapping program allows the harvest of a valued renewable resource.

For more information about Coffeen State Lake Fish and Wildlife Area, contact the site office at P.O. Box 517, Coffeen, IL 62017; phone 217-537-3351.

The Old Home Town

Looking Back To The Beginnings

Village of Butler

Incorporated in 1865, the Village of Butler was a crossroads even before full incorporation. The old Springfield road, which eventually became State Highway 127, was one of the busiest north-south Illinois thoroughfares as early as 1825.

According to Alexander T. Strange in his History of Montgomery County, the first business house was a store owned by "Uncle" Billy Woods who opened in 1855. "After Woods had got his story ready for business, Henry Berry walked up to the counter and laid down a mink skin and called for ten cents' worth of pepper and this was the first commercial deal ever transacted in a public store in this historic village."

Over the years, Hillsboro and Litchfield became more important commercial centers and Butler became more of a residential district.

Village of Coalton

It's no surprise where Coalton got its name. In 1914, coal land owners just southwest of Nokomis sank a mine and seeing a chance to make some money, a town was platted and quickly grew. When it was incorporated in 1916, the population was nearly 1,000.

The houses were built quickly and cheaply as there were large numbers of foreign workers ready to move in. A school district was also formed and a modern school house built.

The mine is long gone now and many of the small homes have also been removed. Now the village is an extension of a growing Nokomis community.

City of Coffeen

In 1881 the Clover Leaf Railroad was built across the farm of G.F. Coffeen in East Fork Township. Mr. Coffeen, seeing the possibilities of the rail line meeting the main Vandalia and Hillsboro road, platted the city that was to carry his name.

A post office was secured in 1882 and to assure the community an area for recreation, Mr. Coffeen dedicated a large park for the new town's residents to enjoy.

Over the years the town has bloomed, faded and stabilized. Most of the commerce has left the main street, but there remain banks, churches and a large elementary school. The many fine homes attest to the community being a fine residential area.

Many residents work in the nearby Central Illinois Public Service Power station.

Village of Donnellson

The area around Donnellson, referred to then as the Bear Creek community, was settled as early as 1819. But it wasn't until 1857 that a town was platted on land owned by the Donnell family. One of the early restrictions was that no intoxicating liquor was to be sold on lands inside the corporation. That held until only recently.

Like its neighbor, Panama, to the west, Donnellson sits astride the Bond-Montgomery county line. Early settlers moving from Bond county were the first to build homes and begin farming there.

Village of Farmersville

Farmersville is one of the "newest" communities in Montgomery County, having only recently, in 1993, celebrated its centennial. The town was laid out around a large city square and organized in 1893, the same year as the Illinois Central Railroad was being built.

Like another county town, the city derived its name from the community of interest which surrounded it. It was surrounded by farmers who owned exceedingly rich land.

One of the most notable features of the town is the annual Irish Day celebration held mid-June, except during war years, since 1907. The community comes together for an annual reunion and a fun-filled celebration.

Village of Fillmore

There were settlers in the Fillmore area a half-century before the village was first laid out in 1881. Like Coffeen, the impetus for organization came as a result of the building of the Clover Leaf Railroad. The village celebrated its centennial in 1983.

In the Fillmore area were many of the early attempts at commerce with the establishment there in 1825 of a mill operated by a yoke of oxen. A horse-drawn mill was built in 1838.

The first school was opened in 1825 in a house vacated by Aaron Casey when he moved into a better one.

The Fillmore area was also the site of the first church erected in the county. It was built by the Rev. Henry Sears, a Baptist by faith.

Village of Harvel

Although the area around Harvel contained some of the richest farmland in the county, it wasn't settled until late because of the scarcity of timber for home construction. The first permanent settlement in the area was in 1854.

In 1869, when the Wabash Railroad was built across the southeastern part of Harvel Township, John Harvel, a longtime resident of the area, had a town laid out and named it after himself.

The town is located on the boundary line between Christian and Montgomery counties, with a part of the village in each county.

City of Hillsboro

The first settlers came to Hillsboro around 1818-1819. A family by the name of Nussman settled in the area of Central Park, near the end of Water street, so named because there was a large and constant flowing spring there.

It wasn't until 1823 that the town was officially platted, mostly in response to the effort to have the county seat located at that location rather than a couple miles southwest at Hamilton, a town that was nipped in the bud.

The first courthouse was built in Hillsboro in 1824 of "hewn logs, two stories high with two windows below and one above. The doors to have good strong shutters and the logs to be chinked and plastered with mud." It cost $221.83 and was built in three months.

Village of Irving

Early settlers came to the Irving area in the late 1820s. In November, 1856, the village was platted and a town laid out along the Terre Haute & Alton Railroad.

But not until Nov. 7, 1863, did the village officially come into being. Cornelius Newberry, a local resident served as chairman of the caucus in which only "white, male citizens over the age of 21" voted to make it official..

The village celebrated its 125th anniversary in 1988 and has been blessed with civic-minded citizens who have been willing to devote much of their lives to the village's care.

City of Litchfield

In October, 1853, County Surveyor Thomas A Gray, laid out the original plat of a town containing 286 lots in an 80-acre cornfield. Some people say the original name of the community was Huntsville. But if it was, the new town soon came to be called Litchfield, in honor of Electus Bachus Litchfield, a director of the Terre Haute and Alton Railroad.

The town didn't just spring up to be the area's leading commercial center. It would take the coming of the railroad in 1856 to really set the boom to going.

In 1855 there was a 3 to 1 vote against incorporating into a village. But in 1856, by a vote of 54 to 13, the effort was successful and the town had its first government. On Feb. 16, 1859, the village was dissolved and the town grew up to become a city.

City of Nokomis

Also built along the Terre Haute and Alton Railroad, Nokomis was first incorporated as a village March 9, 1867. The community grew and became a city Feb. 6, 1893.

There was a great deal of timber in the area originally, much more than in other areas. Yet the community was later in development.

Located midway between Pana and Hillsboro, Nokomis became an important commercial center for farmers.

Today it continues prospering with the city recently acquiring a large new complex for city hall, fire and police and library. The town also features a large park and recreation areas.

Village of Ohlman

Lying on the border between Montgomery and Christian counties, Ohlman is the only village in Audubon Township. It came into being about 30 years after the railroad was built through the county in 1856.

The village was named after Capt. Michael Ohlman, a man who had come to the area and bought a large parcel of land to farm. When the rail line crossed his land he managed to secure a station on his property around which grew the village.

Village of Panama

When borings revealed a fine vein of coal beneath an area two miles west of Donnellson, promoters soon sank a coal shaft and around the shaft the town of Panama soon grew up.

It quickly grew to a population of 1,500 with many people of "foreign birth" working the mine. The great United Mine Workers labor leader, John L. Lewis, helped organize miners there in 1908.

Village of Raymond

Organized in 1871, the town was laid out along the lines of the Wabash Railroad. Surveying was done in 1870 and the lines followed the railroad, rather than running directly by the compass. The town was named for a railroad official, Thomas Raymond.

The village grew quickly in the 1870s and was soon a prosperous community thanks to the rich farmland surrounding it.

It continues to prosper, and with the building of a nine-hole golf course in recent years, and other civic activities, Raymond was given the Governor's Hometown Award in 1990.

Village of Schram City

The only county town built in this century is Schram City. In 1906, a group of Hillsboro capitalists attracted Alex Schram to the area. He owned a patent on an automatic glass canning jar. They lured him to the community with the promise of cheap power from coal in Hillsboro area mines.

When he consented to come, a village was platted near the factory site and small homes built for the workers in the plant.

The glass factory was owned for many years by Hiram Walker and provided jobs for hundreds of men and women. It was sold in 1996 and was closed in October 1997.

Village of Taylor Springs

Taylor Springs was also a "factory town" built around the Taylor Springs mine and the American Zinc Company smelter. At one time the factory there was the largest of its kind in the world.

Like the two communities it adjoins, Hillsboro and Schram City, the population of the village was at its greatest in the early years of this century when the smelter and mine were operating at full capacity.

It continues to be a community of hard-working volunteers.

Village of Waggoner

Settlers moved into the Pitman Township area in the mid 1830s. But they were independent types and forming a village didn't become a priority until the 1890s. On June 8, 1895, a special election was held to determine whether the village should incorporate and it passed 43 to 4.

The village prospered and eventually grew to support several stores, an elevator for the bountiful crops raised in the area, and even a high school.

Over the past years, the town has become a residential community with students going to Farmersville or Raymond. The village still maintains an active community life around the former school building, now a community center.

Village of Walshville

Walshville was the second town started in Walshville township. The first, Mt. Kingston, is only a faint memory.

The new town was platted on land owned a bit further south in the township by Michael Walsh. There was a post office there in 1846, before the village really came into being. Dating from 1846, a post office still continues to operate in the village center.

For many years Walshville was an important start for shipments of livestock and grain to markets in Alton and St. Louis.

Village of Wenonah

Like Coalton to the southwest, Wenonah was built as a community for miners working in the area. And like its neighbor, it continues to be a part now of the larger Nokomis community.

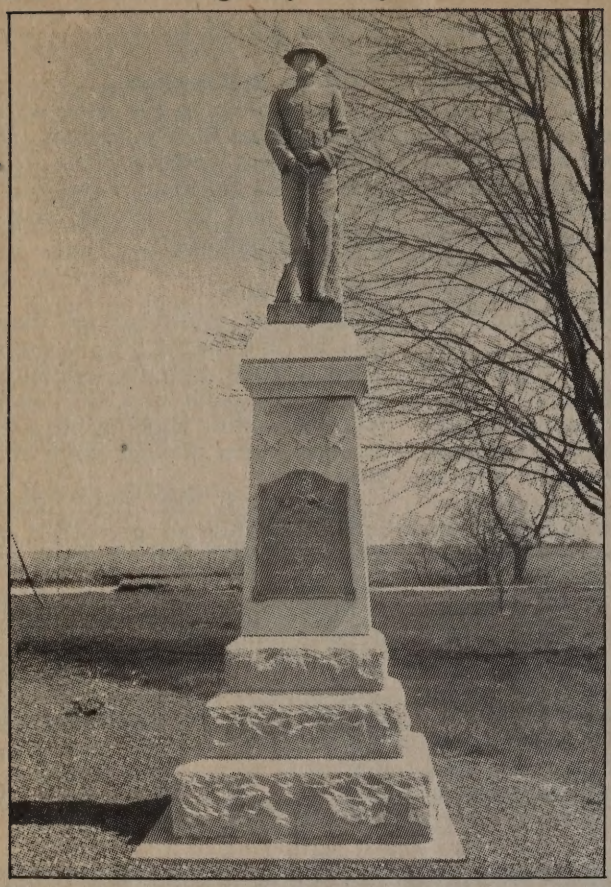
City of Witt

Like other county towns, there was no Witt before the railroad. Then, in 1869, with the building of the Indianapolis and St. Louis Railroad, a store building was constructed, then another store and post office.

Opening of the Witt mines brought additional prosperity to the town which had depended on agriculture.

Incorporated August 25, 1898, it was a town until May 8, 1911 when it became a city.

In October, 1905, Witt was merged with the neighboring village of Paisley.



Raymond Memorial Has Had Several 'Homes'

Following World War I, funds were raised in Raymond for a Veterans' Monument. It was erected on Broad Street and was dedicated "In commemoration of the patriotism of our comrades who went forth at the call of their country to serve in the World War, and in memory of those who died that liberty might live." The names of three soldiers from Raymond who died during World War I were listed.

In 1933, it was moved to the corner of the school grounds at Prairie and School Streets, and a re-dedication service was held on Memorial Day, 1934.

The statue remained at the school site until 1984 when it was moved to Veterans' Memorial Park. Three flagpoles were set at the Veterans' Memorial Park site and since 1984 Memorial Day services have been held there.

In 1995, an additional veterans' memorial was erected at the site in a combined project of the American Legion Post and the Village of Raymond. The memorial recognizes all veterans who have served in time of peace and war and represents the six branches of the Armed Services.

Generation No. 1

1. JOHN[1] HARKEY[1] was born April 04, 1789 in Cabarrus County, North Carolina[1], and died June 21, 1864 in Lancaster, IL.[1]. He married SARAH WALCHER[2] January 11, 1811 in Cabarrus County, North Carolina[3], daughter of MICHAEL WALCHER and MARY CLINE. She was born October 22, 1790 in Cabarrus County, North Carolina[3], and died August 27, 1861 in Montgomery County, IL[3].

Notes for JOHN HARKEY:
Excerpts from Harkey family history, written by Lynn Boyd Reener: "In Sept. 1823, Michael Walcher (Sarah's father) deeded a tract of land to the trustees of St. Michael's Evangelical Lutheran Church one mile southeast of Troutman, Iredell Co., NC. The trustees were Charles Mills, Martin Harkey, William Lippard, Jacob Troutman, and John Harkey.

John and Sarah Harkey moved to Montgomery County Illinois, purchasing 161.40 acres of land on 30 Dec. 1830. This land was in Township 8 North, Range 4 West, the NW 1/4 of section 1 which is just north of the city of Hillsboro. They traveled with a group consisting of Martin and Christina (Mensinger) Harkey and their children and families. It is suggested in BLACKWELDER and ALLIED families that John and Martin were brothers. I have no proof of any relationship. Also among this group were the Blackwelder and Barranger families.

According to John's probate record, he owned about 120 acres in Irving Twp., Montgomery Co. IL at the time of his death.

JOURNAL OF THE SENATE OF THE EIGTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS AT THEIR FIRST SESSION, BEGUN AND HELD IN THE TOWN OF VANDALIA, DECEMBER 3, 1832:

Thursday, January 24, 133, John Harkey was called to testify in the 'High Court of Impeachment", State of Illinois vs. Theophilus Smith, evidentally a judge of the Montgomery County court.

Notes for REV. JAMES MICHAEL HARKEY:
Excerpts from obituary for Rev. James Harkey published in The Indiana Synod, 6th Annual Convention, 1876, pg. 27: "James M. Harkey began his theological studies with his brother, Rev. S. W. Harkey, while residing in Frederick City, MD, and completed them in the Theological Seminary at Gettysburg, PA. He entered the ministry of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in MD -- was licensed by the Synod of MD, at Emmitsburg, on the 15th of October 1846, and was ordained by the same Synod, at Martinsburg, VA, on the 18th of October 1847.

His first charge was at Rossville, York Co., PA, where he labored for two years, when he received a call from the church at Greencastle, Franklin Co., PA, which he accepted, and served most faithfully for four years; and then in 1852, he removed to Quincy, IL< and took charge of the St. Johns German Lutheran Church in that city, which he served with general satisfaction to the people for five years; at the same time he also preached the Word of God at Mendon, in Adams Co. Afterwards, he took charge of our Lutheran interests at Liberty and Payson, same county, and also preached at Pittsfield, in Pike Co. In the year 1860 he removed to Mt. Carmel IL, and served that church, in connection with the one at Lancaster, the same county, some 6 or 7 years, and then removed to Clearmont, where he labored most faithfully until the day of his death, about 7 years.

He was in the ministry, in all, about 29 years, most of the time doing missionary work, but never received support from any Missionary Society, and always receiving but a meagre salary. A most humble, faithful, laborious, self-denying minister of Christ. God gave him many seals to his ministry.

His record is in the churches, and in the hearts of many good people, and with God in Heaven. May the Lord of the harvest raise up many such earnest, faithful, and true laborers, is the prayer of your committee. Signed W.C.L. Lauer"

Notes for SIDNEY LEVI HARKEY:
Excerpts from American Lutheran Biographies: The subject of this sketch was bornin Iredell Co., NC Apr. 3rd, 1827, and is the youngest son of John and Sarah Harkey, and brother of Rev. Simeon W. Harkey, D.D. "The name was originally "Herche" instead of Harkey. On the father's side, the ancestry came from Switzerland and on the mother's side from Wittenberg, Germany. Sidney Levi was baptized in St. Michael's Church, Iredell Co., NC when an infant. The family having removed to the state of IL in 1830, he was catechized and confirmed in Hillsboro, IL when twelve years of age. his classical studies were commenced in Wyman. In the fall of 1844, he entered the freshman class of PA College, Gettysburg, PA, in which institute he continued until 1847, when on account of a severe illness he retired from the college, and afterwards took a select school in Frederick City, MD. his theological studies were pursued under the direction of his brother S.W. Harkey, D.D., and in Oct. 1848, he was licensed to preach the gospel by the Synod of MD, in Cumberland, MD. He then established the Piedmont Academy in Mechanicstown, MD and served it until Apr. 1849, when he accepted a call to Newville, PA, which was his first regular ministerial charge. He was very successful in this field, adding a great many to the church, and he continued as pastor until May, 1852. he was ordained by the West PA synod in 1850, at New Berlin, PA. In 1852 re removed to the State of IL to do home missionary and pioneer work for the Lutheran Church. He labored successively at Peoria, Peki, Mendon, Decatur, Shelbyville, Nokomis, Vandalia, and other points; establishing self sustaining charges without missionary aid in some places, and organizing congregations in others. In 1861, he was elected Chaplain of the 54th Regiment Illinois Volunteers, and served in this capacity in the Civil War, almost a year. In 1868 he was elected English Professor in Augustana College and Theological Seminary, located at Paxton, IL, where he continued two years. He made the first effort to secure a location for this institution in Rock Island and obtained a conditional donation of $40,000 for the institution at Geness, IL, which was never accepted or utilized. This ended his ministry for the time in IL; during which he had been three times elected President of the Synod, being the first President of the Synod of IL and adjacent states. From the beginning of his ministry, and all through the time of his labors in IL< he took high and firm ground in favor of the confessions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, publishing a Synodical sermon upon this subject, entitled "The Faith Once Delivered to the Saints" as early as 1860. He carried his Synod with him into the organization of the General council at Ft. Wayne, in 1867. As he was one of the founders of the General Council, so he has continued one of its warmest friends and defenders to the present time, having been a delegate to most of its conventions and twice elected its English Recording Secretary. His ministry, after leaving IL, has been conducted at Dayton, OH; Indianapolis, IN; Mt. Pleasant, PA; Toledo, OH; and North Lima, OH.

As a man, the testimony of his friends is, that Dr. Harkey is possessed of the warmest sympathies, of a tender, loving heart, of a high sense of honor and right, of candor, conscientiousness, courage, firmness, keen perception, clear judgement, and general intellectual strength and ability. As a preacher, he is characterized by perspicuity, strong imagination, rapid flow of thought and language, powerful and well-cultivated voice, eloquence and force of delivery, energy, earnestness, and feeling. He has rare ability as a musician and composer of music. Almost the whole of the book called "Songs of Beulah" being his own compositions. He has also a vain of poetry, and has furnished a few specimens to the public of his ability in his direction, among which are some Sunday-school hymns, and a poem called "The Flood of the Conemaugh".

He received the honorary degree of Master of Arts from IL State University in 1860; and the degree of Doctor of Divinity in 1882 from the NC College, located in his native state, near the place of his birth."

2. REV. SIMEON WALCHER[2] HARKEY (JOHN[1])[14] was born December 03, 1811 in Iredell County, North Carolina[15], and died March 01, 1889 in Knoxville, Knox County, Illinois.[15]. He married (1) ELIZABETH MITMAN[15] September 22, 1834 in Unknown[15]. She was born Abt. 1810 in Unknown[16], and died November 18, 1865 in Unknown.[17]. He married (2) LOUISA RACHAEL SCHERER[18] August 28, 1866 in Montgomery County, Illinois[19], daughter of DANIEL SCHERER and UNKNOWN. She was born Unknown in Unknown, and died June 10, 1898 in St. Louis, Mo - buried at Oak Ridge Cemetery, Springfield, IL[20].

Notes for REV. SIMEON WALCHER HARKEY:
In May of 1830, Simeon left North Carolina "as a poor farmer's boy" for Gettysburg, PA to study for the ministry. He graduated in 1834 and served at St. Matthews Church in Philadelphia. He married Elizabeth Mitman.

Excerpts from Personal Reminiscences of Luthereranism by Simeon Harkey, dated March 25, 1887: "I have stated that my first visit to IL was made in the summer of 1838 and I was fourteen days in coming from Frederick MD to St. Louis MO, stopping two days in Cincinnati having traveled by stage and private conveyance to Hillsboro, IL.

The prarie of IL were then in all their primitive glory, stretching out many miles in all directions, grass and flowers beneath and the Heavens above, no houses, farms, roads and often not a tree as far as the eyes could see. A grand sight to the newcomer. Every now and then a herd of deer bounding off gracefully over the vast plain as you travel on and numerous flocks of prarie chickens making thing lively for you."

Excerpts from the History of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of MD:

"Of Rev. S. W. Harkey, it may be said that he was an able, devoted, spiritually-minded minister of the gospel. In zeal he was unitiring; in preaching scriptural, fervent, direct, persuasive; and in pastorial work sympathetic and helpful. By all he was held in high regard. In the Synod, he was easily among the leaders. Much of its best work was either suggested or performed by him. Almost continuously he was a director of the Seminary at Gettysburg, and was deeply interested in its work. In temperament he was evidently somewhat impulsive. Had he exercised greater self-restraint he would have saved himself no little annoyance. It is reported that one of his parishioners venturedt to remonstrate with the good Doctor as to the length of the sermons, and suggested that he shorten them. When the time came for the sermon on the following Sunday, the pastor arose and began to slowly turn the leaves of the Bible looking intently and saying quietly "be short", "be short", and then straightening himself up he said with distinct emphasis, "be short, I do not find it in the Bible", and then proceeded with the sermon of more than usual length. Rev. Harkey was a strong and rugged character whose ministry here was greatly blessed. By those who are still here who knew him his memory is tenderly cherished, while the influence he exerted in this congregation has not, after the lapse of more than fifty-five years, entirely spents its force.

Excerpts from the Knox County Republican, Obituary of Rev. Simeon Harkey: "Simeon Walcher Harkey, Doctor of Divinity, pastor and teacher was born in North Carolina. He was educated at Gettysburg, PA, College, which he entered at the age of 19, maintaining himself by his own exertions and without the aid of anyone. After serving as pastor for nearly 20 years in the East, he was elected to the chair of Theology in the Lutheran Seminary at Springfield, IL, where he was made an honorable record and became widely known as one of the leading divines of his denomination. Since he came to Knoxville seven years ago, he has not ceased to teach and preach, continuing his active ministry in a school and congregation long after most men would have ceased to work. The example of his long life of energy, perseverance and fidelity to duty has the admiration and gratitude of all who knew him. It can be truly said that as a true soldier he died at his post. Amid discouragement, that would have dismayed many young men he kept bravely on, nothing doubting that his work should not be in vain. He was loved and respected by all. It is hardly possible that he had an enemy in the world. He was so unassuming, so ready to bear all things and do all things for Christ. He kept uncomplainingly and unselfishly doing his duty in the state to which it pleased God to call him. In the comparatively humble work of his declining years there was nothing to excite the applause of the world, and doubtless for this cause it failed to attract the attention and support which it deserved. In his death Knoxville and Knox county have lost one of their most learned and worthy citizens. We knew Dr. Harkey only in the period of his declining strength. But age could not dim the shining qualities of a sanctified soul nor take from a consecrated life its crown of glory and honor. In his death religion has lost one of its noblest examples; education, an able and conscientious teacher; society, and influence for good; a family, one who was dearly loved and honored."

March 14, 1910, Troy Mills, Iowa[108]; d. December 17, 1985, Independence, Iowa - buried at Mt. Hope Cemetery with his first wife Bernadene.[108].

Notes for BERNADENE IOLA ZIMMERLY:
→ Bernadene Zimmerly was born on April 15, 1916 in Independence, Iowa, the youngest daughter of Robert and Alice Daisy Zimmerly.

Bernadene married Kenneth McCorstin but divorced him after only a few years. There were no children by this marriage. Bernadene married Orville Bergstrom on July 6, 1940 in Waterloo, Iowa with Clyde and Eliose Christensen as witnesses.

During World War II, it was hard on the wives also. Most women didn't work outside of the home then, so they got a $60.00 a month allotment and that was their income. Out of that money, all bills had to be paid. There were a lot of shortages during World War II, like sugar, flowers, gasoline, etc. They had ration stamps. Stamps for sugar, coffee, red meat, shoes, gasoline, vegetables. Bernadene lived in a small little house next to the Bayer's just outside of Independence. Frank Speers always kept Bernie's car going. You couldn't buy tires during World War II and the tires weren't very good anyway. Bernadene and Eliose went a lot of places in Bernie's old Model "A" Ford. One time in the winter, right after Christmas, they took their children (Doris and Mary Lou and Connie and Ken) and went down to visit Gus and Martha on the Campbell place. You had to go up the hill to get into the yard. It was snowing, and they got half-way up the hill and got stuck. Martha looked out the window and said to Gus, "Oh Gus, here comes those girls with those little kids." Gus got a team of horses and came down and got them all. He loaded all of them into a sled with his two Belgian horses, Prince and Colonel and took them back to the house. Things were hard but they had fun, too.

Bernadene suffered from migraine headaches all her life. At the onset of the headache, she would go to her bedroom, and shut out as much light as possible and her daughters knew that they must be very quiet. She had her first cerebral hemorrhage in 1955; she was unconscious for three days. They did a lot of tests, but in those days, there wasn't much they could do. They tried to keep her uncontrollable high blood pressure under control, but she had another hemorrhage in January of 1961. She had just come back from dropping Orville down by the highway to catch the bus to Deere's. She swept the snow off the sidewalk and got just inside the door when she fell down unconscious. Her daughter Mary Lou was upstairs asleep, but said she was dreaming of her mother and saw blood on her face. She woke up and went downstairs and found her mother. She was rushed to People's Hospital in Independence, Iowa and Clarence Snyder, a next-door neighbor, raced up to Waterloo to try to catch the bus and brought Orville back to Independence, but she died at age 44, with her best friend Lois Satterlee at her side in the early morning of January 26th, 1961. Doris was going to school in Sioux Falls College and her uncle, Robert Zimmerly drove there and picked up Doris and her cousin Connie Christensen, who was also attending Sioux Falls College at that time and brought them back to Independence. The funeral was held at First Baptist Church, in Independence, Iowa where she had been a long-time member. She left behind her husband Orville and two broken-hearted daughters, Doris and Mary Lou. She is buried at Mount Hope Cemetery with her husband Orville.

Notes for ORVILLE CLARENCE BERGSTROM:
Orville was born to Gus and Martha Bergstrom on March 14, 1910 near Troy Mills, Iowa. He was their first born and was delivered at home by an 'old doctor from Coggin'.

When Orville and Orma were about four and five, [the summer of 1915], they ventured down to the pasture where all the hogs and cows were. There was a tile drain, it was nothing but a pig wallow. They decided that it looked good, so they just got in there, just like the pigs. Their mother didn't miss them for awhile, and they she looked out, and there they came bare naked, all covered in mud, carrying their clothes. Orma said "Mama, I turned my back while Orville got undressed and got in and he turned his back while he undressed." Martha was horrified!

When Orville and Orma were about five and six, their mother would give them a grocery list and send them off in the buggy to go to Cook & Hefner's Grocery Store in Troy Mills [about six miles away]. Martha would put a note on the bottom of the grocery list "Put the groceries in the buggy and turn the horses around".

Orville's tonsils were taken out at home on the kitchen table. But most of the time, they never had a doctor, they were too poor to be sick.

Orville and Bernadene Zimmerly were married in Waterloo, Iowa on July 6,1940 with Clyde and Eliose Bergstrom-Christensen as witnesses.

Orville entered the Army on May 19, 1944 and was in training at Camp Roberts, California before going overseas on October 29, 1944. He served in the European, African and Middle Eastern theaters. While serving with General Patton's 3rd Army, 101th infantry in France where he was wounded in action in the battle of Luxembourg on January 1, 1945 in France. He was struck in the leg by shrapnel from enemy mortar fire and suffered a fractured foot for which he received a Purple Heart. He told his sister Orma, that when he got shot, he "saw" his Grandma Hart in a vision. [She had died in 1933.] He was hospitalized in England. His wife received a Western Union telegraph saying: "Regret to inform you your husband private first class Orville C. Bergstrom was slightly wounded in action one January in Luxembourg. You will be advised as reports of condition are received. Dunlop, Acting the Adjutant General." He came home on the LaCrosse Victory boatwhich sailed from Le Havre, France and arrived in New York November 27, 1945. He was discharged on December 2, 1945.

After he got back from the war, he went to work at Deere's. He was a core assembler. He would get up at 4 o'clock in the morning, Bernadene would pack him a huge lunch, and he would ride the company bus to Waterloo. They used to warm up their lunch by putting their food on a long paddle and putting it into the oven. One day, a black man's lunch fell off, and of course, he didn't have anything to eat. Orville gave him half of his lunch, and the rest of the workers couldn't believe he had done that. It was in the '50's, when it was almost unheard of for a black and white man to have anything to do with each other. Well a few months later, Dad missed his ride home, somehow. At that time, he was car pooling with some other men. The black man who had lost his lunch brought Orville home to Independence [a distance of about 20 miles]. We wouldn't think anything of that today, but then, it was almost unheard of!

Orville worked at Deere's for 29 years and retired in 1971. He passed away on December 17, 1985 at Independence People's Hospital from complications of pneumonia and emphysema with his four sisters (Orma, Eliose, Audrey & Deloris) and his second wife, Leona, at his side. He is buried with his first wife Bernadene in Mt. Hope Cemetery, in Independence, Iowa.

Notes for ROBERT ALFRED ZIMMERLY:
Article in Independence paper in 1973:

"ZIMMERLY LOGS 35 YEARS AND
2 MILLION MILES AS TRUCK DRIVER

Bob Zimmerly, Independence, at the age of 50, has been a truck driver for 35 years. For the past 25 years, since May 19, 1948, he has been employed by Elmer Jensen, owner of Jensen Transport Inc. in Independence. Last Saturday night, his employer honored him for 25 years of accident free driving. Zimmerly and his wife, the former Dorothy Manson, were feted at a surprise supper held at Glen HavenSupper club at Oelwein. Forty-eight persons including Mr. and Mrs. Jensen and employees of Jensen Transport, Inc. and their wives attended the event.

Entertainment was by the Huckie-Mitchell Singers of Sumner. Mrs. Jensen read "The Story of a Truck Driver," about Zimmerly and his wife, written by Tammy Brooks, and also the pem "The World Is Your Mirror." A tier cake, baked and decorated in silver and blue by Mrs. Arsne VanDaele, featured a miniature truck between the tiers. Zimmerly was presented a trophy and a gold watch and his wife a corsage and gold bracelet.

Rober Topp, a former Jensen employee, now of El Cajon, Calif., telephoned to congratulate Zimmerly. Zimmerly's career began at age 15 when he started driving a coal truck in Independence for J. B. Elliott. He continued this job for eight years after which which he worked as a trucker for Harold Lohman and for one year drove a gasoline transport for the Skilly Oil Co. out of Iowa City. The Skelly Oil Co. job was his introduction to driving a semi. He also served two years in the U.S. Air Force as a mechanic on P51 fighter planes.

In his 25 years with Jensen, he has driven approximately 2,000,000 accident free miles. He does mechanical repairs on the trucks he drives and "keeps them immaculate," according to his employer who said he couldn't say enough good things about him.

Zimmerly is happy in his work and said he has had no desire for any other profession. He is presently driving a new 1973 White Freightliner which he and Jensen flew to Portland, Ore. to get. While in Portland, they had the opportunity to tour the factory to see how the semis are built. Zimmerly had driven the truck 10,000 miles in the month he has been in operation.

In his 25 years of driving for Jensen, Zimmerly has been snowbound just twice, the last time during the surprise April 9 Iowa snowstorm, when he was stalled for 32 hours on Interstate 80. The other time he said he "sat for two days in Nebraska with a load of cattle" when he was caught in a blizzard. It was necessary to find a place to unload the cattle so they could be fed. When weather permitted he returned to Iowa with the livestock. Since then he also hauls bulk starch. When he first began working for Jensen he drove International trucks with gas engines. In 1951 Jensen purchased his first diesel truck and Bob became the driver. He has driven diesels since.

Sometimes a trip may take as long as four days. He may spend overnight at home in Independence or be home for a week before he is dispatched on another run. Some of his longer trips have included hauling feeder cattle from montana to Iowa, fat cattle from Iowa to Elizabeth NJ and milk to Brownsville, TX.

Mr. and Mrs. Zimmerly reside at Rush Park trailer court and Mrs. Zimmerly is employed in the coffee shop at Hotel Pinicon."

This was read at the 25th anniversary party:

"THE STORY OF A TRUCK DRIVER - BOB ZIMMERLY

Once upon a time (too long ago to remember) a little boy named Bob came up to a big man named Elmer and asked for a job. Elmer decided if he was smart enough to drive a truck (which isn't too smart) Bob could have a job, too. Heap Big Chief Jensen gave Cowboy Bob a job of hauling horses for his first work assignment. Bob must have been content hauling horses because when Elmer first suggested Bob take a lead to Chicago, Bob (more or less said), "Go jump in a lake", preferably Lake Michigan." Finally, after much prodding, Bob took his first load to Chicago--I could relate the habits of cattle to Bob's outlook on life, but my conscience prevents it. One day Bob walked into the office in a daze. This was because he had just gotten married to a pretty girl named Dorothy.

Dorothy's name and her family situations bears a resemblance to "The Wizard of Oz." She and Bob live in the Oz of Rush Park and Bob is doomed forever to work on the wicked warlock of the East. Now on with the story. Bob vaguely remembered Dorothy making some promise to obey him. Bob used this promise as a wey of getting Dorothy to help him was his truck on Friday afternoons. As the Chicago stock market took fewer loads of cattle, Bob began hauling loads of starch. The author of this story previously mentioned the Wizard of Oz and if you'll paulse to remember that in that story Dorothy's home is struck by a tornado. In the Oz'71, a wind storm demolished our Oz (not odd) couple's trailer home. However, the Dorothy in our story didn't get her marbles knocked around. Or so we presume ... After getting settled in a new home, Bob and Dorothy live happily ever after in the Emerald city of Independence."

Doris, a gedcom is Genealogical Data Compression, it is a way of compressing your database to send it, but if you do not know what that is, forget it! What computer genealogy program do you use, it looks like Family Tree Maker???? If so, you can send me a copy of your file on the internet. Do you know how to do that? If not, you save your file to a diskette and mail it to me. Let me know what you can do.
You are correct, that Daniel Valentine Harkey was married to Elizabeth Walcher and to Margaret Ann Weller,who is James Calvin's mother, so we are not related through that line. Sorry I mislead you! We are related through Michael Walcher's daughter, Sarah Sally who married John Harkey. Thank heavens, they all had different names, have had some that generation after generation the same name was used. John had John had John!

Doris, have kept your note in my active inbox so I would get back to you, just thought it would be sooner than now...was hit with acute bronchitis and am finally feeling better to be at the computer desk.
You asked how we are related--we both descend through children of Michael Walcher, you through Sarah " Sally" Walcher who married John Harkey and I descend through her brother, John Michael Walcher who married Leah Smith. According to my relationship chart, that makes us 5th cousins!
Barbara- all ancestors have Walcher surname=Michael, John Michael, John Henry, Charles Daniel Lincoln, Ernest Raymond, Edwin Allen, Barbara.
Doris = Michael Walcher, Sarah "Sally' Walcher Harkey, Daniel Valentine Harkey, James Calvin Harkey, Alice "Daisy" Harkey Zimmerly, Bernadine Iola Zimmerly Bergstrom, Doris Bergstrom Clement. Am I correct?
I have been researching the Walcher family of a number of years, have been in contact with many of our Walcher cousins and have always hoped to find were Adam Walcher came into the US (no find as yet), however one of our east coast cousins has found a copy of his will in North Carolina (let me know if you wish a copy) We also have Michael's will.

I try to keep in contact with each researcher who is working or has worked on our Walcher family. I keep thinking some day we will find a really sharp techy in the family who will work on and maintain a Adam Walcher website--maybe some day--but I am getting older (71) so for now I am just keeping in contact.
Presently I am working on constructing the branches of the John Michael Walcher branch of the family, working to find living descendants to bring database information up-to-date. John & Leah had 11 children, 9 lived to marry and have families, so it has been a project! but is progressing. Your Daniel Valentine Harkey who married Elizabeth Walcher in this branch.
In 2001 you sent me part of your family database from John and Sarah through your parents, it is wonderful! Your stories are great. I printed it off for my file, however your gedcom was lost in a later computer meltdown. I am hoping you will send it again in order that I may add your information to the Daniel and Elizabeth Harkey data along with any new information you may have added. Right now I am working with census and searching for obituaries to lead me to living cousins hoping they will be able to share obituaries, pictures and stories..
My hope is to put together a book with chapters for each branch of John Michael family. It would not be a book for the Internet, but would be available to those who shared infomation. Would you consider sharing your own family also?
I have corresponded with Lynn Boyd Reener, was in Litchfield two years ago and we spent time together. What a great time we had!
I so appreciate the information you have shared with me and hope we will continue to keep in touch.

Doris, have kept your note in my active inbox so I would get back to you. Just thought it would be sooner than now...was hit with acute bronchitis and am finally feeling better to be at the computer desk.

You asked how we are related--we both descend through children of Michael Walcher, you through Sarah " Sally" Walcher who married John Harkey and I descend through her brother, John Michael Walcher who married Leah Smith. According to my relationship chart, that makes us 5th cousins.

Barbara- all ancestors have Walcher surname--Michael, John Michael, John Henry, Charles Daniel Lincoln, Ernest Raymond, Edwin Allen, Barbara.

Doris - Michael Walcher, Sarah "Sally" Walcher Harkey, Daniel Valentine Harkey, James Calvin Harkey, Alice "Daisy" Harkey Zimmerly, Bernadine Iola Zimmerly Bergstrom, Doris Bergstrom Clement...am I correct?

I have been researching the Walcher family of a number of years, have been in contact with many of our Walcher cousins and have always hoped to find more Adam Walcher came into the US (no find as yet). However one of our east coast cousins has found a copy of his will in North Carolina (let me know if you wish a copy). We also have Michael's will.

I try to keep in contact with each researcher who is working or has worked on our Walcher family. I keep thinking some day we will find a really sharp techy in the family who will work on and maintain a Adam Walcher website--maybe some day--but I am getting older (!!) so for now I am just keeping in contact.

Presently I am working on constructing the branches of the John Michael Walcher branch of the family, working to find living descendants to bring database information up-to-date. John & Leah had 11 children, 9 lived to marry and have families, so it has been a project but is progressing. Your Daniel Valentine Harkey who married Elizabeth Walcher is this branch.

Doris, am beginning to work on the John Michael Walcher who migrated from NC to Montgomery Co, IL about 1860. Several cousins have been working on getting info together with the goal of putting the info into a book. It's a big project with lots of families. John Michael and Leah Smith had 11 children, 9 married and had families.
What I am doing now is working on the census of each family and attempting to find a living descendant in each branch. It is coming along fairly well, but take time. I just wanted to touch base with you to update my information on your branch. Will be working on that branch in the next few months. Hope you can help me then. Right now just keeping in touch with cousins I have corresponded with over the past few years. More later,

I noticed that also--These two items came from two different sources so am trying to find out which are really correct. Why don't you put that one on the back burner for awhile, not enter it and as soon as I know something I will let you know. At this point, all I can tell you is- that is information given to me. Please let me know if you find anything else that looks suspicious.

I did find one thing that didn't agree with what Lynn Boyd Reener sent me. Aaron Barringon who married Margaret Ann Harkey, born 1813 is really Aaron Barringer. They are both buried at Hillsboro, IL, Cress Hill Cemetery.

I'm sure it was because it was MS Word 2000. I volunteer at my church from time to time, and when she gives me a disc with work to do, I always have trouble also. Its not necessary to send me a hard copy - i finally got it to print.

Could you send me the genealogy report on family tree maker if you have it. Its hard to figure out which children belong to which mother on this report. You can e-mail it to me by copying the genealogy report, cutting out what is not applicable, and pasting it into an e-mail message.

Doris,
Thank you so much for replying and sending your family information. I believe that you also correspond with Lynn Reener in Montgomery County, Illinois. Lynn and I have corresponded for several years. My family line is from John Michael Walcher a brother of Sarah "Sally" Walcher Harkey. Several of the Walcher cousins are working toward finding were Adam, John Michael and Sally's grandfather entered the US. I am hoping that you might be interested in joining the research group. Right now we are looking for a place to coordinate our research. I also use Family Tree Maker software, however, I am sending you an attachment of 5 generations of the Adam line that is in Microsoft Word, you should be able to click on it to open it or save it. Plese let me know if you have problems with the attachment.
I hope you will join us in our research.
Sincerely,
Barbara Walcher Fulton
Bartlesville, OK

Barbara,

Sorry I didn't answer your e-mail sooner through the Walcher surname, but I have been on vacation.

My mother was Bernadene Zimmerly, my father was Orville Bergstrom. Alice Daisy Harkey was my grandmother. All my genealogy is in family tree maker and here is how I fit into the Walcher picture. Any information you can give me on the Walcher's would be great.

I live in Sun Lakes, AZ.

Lynn,

I am Daisy (Harkey) Zimmerly's granddaughter. My mother was Bernadene. She married Orville Bergstrom, my father. Sandra Brown gave me a copy your family history which was written some time ago.

If you are interested in Daisy's descendants, contact me. I have been working on my father's side of the family for about two years, but have quite a lot on my mother's side also.

Yes, we have the same ancestor. My line descends through John Michael who was the youngest child and a brother of Sarah "Sally" Walcher Harkey.

I will include you on my list of Walcher researchers. We have traced Adam to Frederick City, Maryland where his son Michael was born in 1750. If you have other information regarding Adam, please advise. I look forward to hearing from you.
